

Rosary Rally
 Newburgh, N. Y.—(NC)—More than 12,000 persons here attended the first of five outdoor rallies introducing the Family Rosary Crusade to the New York Archdiocese. On October 12 the crusade will climax with a rally in New York City's Polo Grounds.

City's Religious Leaders Issue Appeal To Register

Protestants, Roman Catholics and Jews are cooperating here in a campaign to get citizens to register for the November voting.

In a simultaneous plea, officials of the three faiths declared: "Be sure you register and vote!"

PASTORS WERE urged to exhort their congregations to register and vote, to put notices on their church bulletin boards and calendars. Letters have been sent out to all priests, ministers and rabbis in the Rochester area.

Acting for their respective faiths are Dr. Hugh Chamberlain Burr, executive secretary of the Federation of Churches of Rochester and vicinity; the Rev. Leslie G. Whalen, vice-chancellor of the Rochester Catholic diocese; and Rabbi Stuart Rosenberg, of Temple Beth-El, president of the Rabbinical Council of Rochester.

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

THE difference between American world policy and Russian world policy is this: America believes in Europe first; hence the Marshall Plan. Russia believes in Asia first; hence the war in Korea, the conquest of China and Tibet.

We are not the least interested in politics, but we are tremendously interested in peace and the salvation of souls. From this point of view, we believe Russia is right in stressing Asia first. Asia has 1/2 of the earth's surface and 2/3 of the earth's population. Lenin once said: "The shortest route to Paris passes through Peking." By this he meant that whatever happens to Asia, happens to Europe.

If Stalin would destroy Europe by destroying Asia, it is true from a missionary point of view that by saving Asia we save Europe or even America. Over half the population of Asia is earning less than $100 a year. That income is decreasing under Communism! Europe has received billions and billions of dollars for the Marshall Plan; can not the Holy Father find thousands and thousands of dollars to build schools, heal the sick, cure the lepers, house the aged and educate young and old in the moral life of Christ?

Last year the per capita contribution of all the Catholics of the world to the Holy Father's Missions was the unbelievably low sum of 2¢; two cents per man, woman and child!

Tens of thousands in the United States could give thousands; hundreds of thousands could do without a luxury, or send a rise in salary, or the equivalent of a half-dozen, or what is spent on cigarettes and cocktails a year. The Sacred Heart of Our Lord and the Immaculate Heart of Our Blessed Mother will bless you. There is no charity like spreading the Faith and saving souls. One soul is worth more than the universe! Asia first!

God Love You to G. E. D. who had saved $29 toward the plane fare for a trip but thought the Blessed Mother could use the money to better advantage for the Missions. . . . God Love You to B. D. who writes, "We have all been looking forward to a raise in pay in the army and now that it is here, I want to offer my first month's increase ($14.25) to the Holy Father's Missions. . . . God Love You to Mrs. A. L. who sent $5 to the Missions to represent the candy she will not eat for a year in thanksgiving for recovery from serious illness. . . . God Love You to the young lady who found a wallet on the train, returned it to the owner and gave the $5 reward to the Missions. . . . God Love You to Mrs. V. C. for $153, the monthly check from her Mission Club. . . . God Love You to J. L. who writes, "I am 14 years old and do not have a job, but I would like to send some ($5) of my baby-sitting money which ordinarily I would have spent on little things." . . . God Love You to Mrs. J. E. E. who promised the Missions a dollar for every pound she loses. So far she has lost 16 pounds and the Missions have gained $16. . . . God Love You to D. S. who was saving for a special dress, but decided to send the $21 to the Missions instead. . . . God Love You to F. L. M.—"$150 is the price I would have paid to see a sports event here last Thursday, but I did not attend and so I'm sending it to the Missions."

October 19th is Mission Sunday. The collection box could miss you, but not half as much as the Holy Father's Missions would miss your sacrifice which you can send to your Diocesan Director or to us.

Are you aware that 45% of the people in the United States claim no religious affiliation whatsoever? Did you know that this is part of the reason that a decade on the Worldmission Rosary is red and that your prayers are needed for America? At your request and a $2 offering for the Holy Father's Missions, we will send you a Worldmission Rosary already blessed by me.

Pin your sacrifice to this column and mail to the Most Reverend Fulton J. Sheen, National Director, Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 109 East 38th Street, New York 16, New York, or to your Diocesan Director, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph B. Melnyk, 101 N. Seventh St., Camden 3, N. J.

Candidates Campaign For Election

Campaign Rally Held To Elect Class Officers

Auburn — Posters, tags, slogans, and speeches bubbled forth as a giant rally took place last Friday at 11 a. m. in Holy Family High School Auditorium.

The occasion was the presidential election in the respective high school classes. This year, for the first time, the elections were preceded by an intensive campaign that rivaled for enthusiasm, a national convention.

IN THE SENIOR homeroom, John Cirillo, a tower of strength on the gridiron, touched forth with the effervescent Terry Bouley, John Talkman and Francis Dido vied for honors in the Junior class, while the Sophomores watched Will Foley tackle popular John Onori.

The Freshman class, not to be outdone, had Mike Iacovino straining against Bob Quill for the highest office.

All candidates had to qualify by a stiff eligibility standard. A scholastic average of 80%, plus a record of good conduct and courtesy was the mark set for all hopefuls.

The results were as follows: Senior Class: John Cirillo, president; Mary Curtin, vice president; Mary Ann Glancy, secretary; Terrence Bouley, treasurer.

X-Rays At Baden-Ormond. Residents in the Baden-Ormond neighborhood will have an opportunity to have free chest X-rays Tuesday, Oct. 7 when the Mobile X-Ray Unit of Iola Sanatorium will be parked at Baden Street Settlement.

Senior Class: John Cirillo, president; Mary Curtin, vice president; Mary Ann Glancy, secretary; Terrence Bouley, treasurer.

Freshman Class: Michael Iacovino, president; Mary Elizabeth Surber, vice president; Carol Clegg, secretary; Robert Quill, treasurer.

St. Bonaventure Alumni To Sponsor Clambake

Plans for an old-fashioned clambake were completed at a recent meeting of the St. Bonaventure Alumni Club of Rochester. The bake will be held at Point Pleasant Hotel, October 5.

Reservations may be made with any of the following committee members: William Bennett, David Driscoll, Bernard Sullivan, William Swanton and Dr. Bernard Tofany.

NEW OFFICERS of the Club for the year are: president, Leo T. Minton; vice-president, Pat Peina; treasurer, John Williams, Jr.; secretary, Robert Conroy; Chairman of the Board of Directors, Robert Kohler; Liaison Officer, John Koepfer.

New Rochelle Grads To Work For Peace

A meeting of the Rochester Chapter College of New Rochelle Alumnae was held Tuesday evening, Sept. 30, at the home of Mrs. Henry Therrien, 253 Dorchester Road.

Miss Helen O'Connell, President of the chapter, presented the program for the coming year. From "The Cause of Peace" by Pope Plus XII, the group has chosen "The Sublime Task of Laboring For Peace" as its theme for the year.

The aim of the program is to prepare members to engage actively in the Church's work for universal peace through intensified Christian living, the defense of moral values, the realization of social justice, and the reconstruction of the social order.

Miss Hortense Savard and Miss Dorothy Hyde were appointed co-chairmen for the Communion breakfast to be held on Oct. 19.

Rochester Grads To Attend Niagara University Reunion

Members of the Rochester Chapter Niagara University Alumni Association met on the Starlight Roof of the Sheraton Hotel Tuesday, Sept. 30, to open a new year of activity.

The local group greeted the Rev. Frederick J. Russell, C.M., newly appointed executive secretary of the National Alumni Association, and Edward Argy, national president of the university's alumni. Both traveled from Niagara Falls for the meeting.

Father Russell, head of the department of philosophy at the Niagara Falls school, succeeds the Rev. Bernard J. McGinn, C.M., who retired from the post because of ill health.

ANNOUNCEMENT was made that the October meeting will be given over to nomination and election of officers for the local chapter.

Argy extended a special invitation to members to the second annual reunion scheduled for Oct. 10 to 12 in Niagara Falls. Plans include a party at the Ray-Out Club Friday, Oct. 10, at 9 p. m. with the Hemphill Club as host. Saturday's program will include sporting events on campus followed by a business meeting while wives and friends of the alumni will be entertained at a luncheon and fashion show at the Red Coath Inn.

It's a gamble you needn't take when there's an expert who can break your household goods, move them to your new home or store them in the finest fire-proof warehouse in your community . . . often at less cost than it would take to replace damaged goods. Free estimate on request.
