

LeMoyné Guild Opens Season With Miller Piece

The LeMoyné Guild Players will begin their 1952-53 season with Arthur Miller's prize-winning drama "All My Sons." This is the play that won the Drama Critics' Award for the best new American play of the 1947 season in New York.

The play will be presented on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings, October 15, 16, 17 at 8:30 p.m. A matinee performance will be given on Saturday, October 18 at 2:30 p.m.

THE GUILD PLAYERS

have been at work on the production since summer and feel that they should be prepared to offer a very enjoyable presentation when they open on October 15 in the College Auditorium.

ing spirit of the venture; Anne M. Welch, remembered for her outstanding interpretation in the recent "Guest in the House"; Estelle Harvey, also remembered from "Guest in the House" and "The Show-Off"; Ed. Kearney, Jr., who joined the Players a year ago, fresh from the dramatic school at Georgetown University; V. Bruce Reinman, remembered from "The Show-Off" and "Guest in the House"; and Kathleen Tobin, who made her first entrance on the Players' stage as "Guest in the House" as a newspaper woman.

TWO NEW PLAYERS have been added to the roster for this production; they are Patricia McCarty and Jack Boale, who will make their first entrance on October 15.

Wallace Beery stars in "Beggars of Life" at the Dryden theatre this Saturday and Sunday afternoon. In the current Dryden series, Beery has been seen in character roles such as Richard the Lion-Hearted and as a comedian along with Raymond Hatton. In "Beggars of Life," the 1928 film version of Jim Fully's novel, Beery will be seen in another demonstration of his versatile acting, this time as a brutal and menacing tramp.

Bernice Miller In Lead Role At HF

Holy Family Theatre of Jay Street will open its fifth year with the perennial favorite, "O My Heart," on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 13, 14 and 15 at the school auditorium at 8:15 p.m.

Bernice Miller fully produced several comedies and seven musicals, this promises to be "tops," inasmuch as it is being done with the original accent on the languages spoken.

THOMAS O'Neil, president of the theatre for the past two years, is a familiar sight, inasmuch as he has played in some capacity on the stage for the past several years. He has played Lawrence Kieber, boss for the third consecutive play, having had principal parts during two previous productions. Clarence Deeringer, although new to the theatre, has been active in show business for many years.

Bishop Sheen shattered reports of a rift between himself and the National Broadcasting Company when he paid tribute to NBC for the generous contribution it has made to advancing the cause of religion in the past quarter century.

THE NATIONAL Council of Catholic Men comes through again. This time it's three powerful portrayals of Sacraments. Featured on the TV program Frontiers of Faith on Sundays, Oct. 12, 19 and 26, over WHAM-TV the sacraments to be explained include The Sign of the Cross, Holy Water and Medals and Images.

Bishop Sheen went on to say that at the time he was invited to give the first broadcast from Radio City he was told by the then president of NBC that he wanted the name of God to be mentioned on the air for the first broadcast.

Family Radio Rosary Leaders. The Radio Rosary is broadcast every night at 7 p.m. over Station W5AY, Rochester.
