Cardinal Benefactor Of College

The keynote of the St. John Fisher College drive for funds was sounded by His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, speaking from the stage of the Eastman Theatre when he offered a challenge to advance the cause of Christian Education by building St. John Fisher College as "another sanctuary of democratic education in this great land of liberty."

The Prince of the Church emphasized his challenge to an audience of 3000 gathered at the Eastman Theatre on January 27, 1948 by presenting to His Excellency Bishop Kearney a check for $25,000 for St. John Fisher College in behalf of the New York Archdiocese.

Participants in the program were: Rt. Rev. Msgrs. George V. Burns, Charles F. Shay, the late Joseph S. Cameron, John B. Sullivan, F. William Stauder, Thomas F. Connors, George W. Eckl, William M. Hart, V.C.P.A., and James G. Mahr, diocesan chancellor, all of Rochester and the Rt. Rev. Msgrs. William H. McPadden of Geneva, John A. Conway of Auburn and William J. Brien of Elmira. Also the Very Rev. Msgr. John S. Randall, Campaign Director.

Papal knights of the Order of the Knights of the Holy Sepulcher, St. Sylvester, Malta and St. Gregory were Jeremiah G. Hickey, K. M., Bernard E. Finucane, K.M., James P. B. Duffy, K.M., K.S.G., Walter M. Wojtczak, K.S.G., Frank Lesch, K.H.S. of Auburn, Dr. Leo F. Simpson, K.S.S., Augustine J. Cunningham, K.H.S., Frank H. Biel, K.H.S., Frederick J. Weider, K.H.S., Frederick F. Pfeiffer, K.H.S., Peter Tettelbach, K.H.S., William E. Maloney, K.H.S., and Harry C. D'Annunzio, K.S.G.
