IS IT A LOST ART?

We hope it it not. But even in Our Lord's time, after he cured the ten lepers and only one returned to thank illm, he did ex-claim: "Ten were made clean and where are the nine?" At least, ceses, we offer these sentiments of deepest gratitude to Bishop Sheen and those wonderful diocesan directors of the Propagation of the Falth, all of whom have been so good to the Near East.

THIS YOUNG MAN proudly stands before the Doms of St. Peter in Rome. Soon he will so back to a Near East Mission land as a priest. Others are trained in native seminaries, and this week we ber a kind friend to adopt Joseph, who has five years to go im the Seminary of St. Joseph in Alwaye, India. You may give the $509 needed, in any installmenis, over his years of striving for the altar. Work you adopt him?

THOSE NOVEMBER MASSES: Have our Near East missionaries offer Mass for a loved one deceased during November. Do you know about the Gregorian Masses, offered for thirty days, the whole month of November? Write for information.

OUR LADY'S KREMLIN

We knew the Kremlin as a sinister place, the headquarters of Stalin and his cohorie. But perkaps you do not knaw that the Church of Our Lady's Assumption was built there. Read about it in our new pamphlet, "OUR LADY'S KREMLIN," which contains the appeal of Pope Pius XII is the Russian people. We send it to all who give a mite for the new Shring Chapel of OUR LADY OF FATIMA, which we are leading at Adigrat in Ethiopia. Please do help.

THOSE SEVEN-DOLLAR-A-MONTH CLUBS assure so many worthy Near East Mission causes of regular help each month. And those priceless STRINGLESS GIFTS are really inspired, for they answer those most urgent cases, for which we do not have time to appeal.

WANT AD

"Mass is said in a thatched shed.
Even that is crumbling and the next monsoon will dash it to the ground," writes Archbishop Severios of India about the little villiage of Piravam. He begs $2,000 to build a modest little chapel. Can build this House of God for poor outcasts? God will surely bless all who ease their sad lot.

LOOKING ON JESUS

How pilgrims to the Holy Land fall on their knees at the sacred sites of Rethiehem, Nararch and Calvary! How we envy those who live around these shrines! But we must never forget that today they are suffering the toriures of poverty and want, And you can give joy to a little foundling in these towns of Jesus by your offering to maintain one for a mouth. Even a $7 gift will do just this for those who always look on Jesus. You show them the charity of Jesus, ALWAYS BURNING: Your $15 gift provides a sanctuary lamp to a Neaf East chapel. It will burn always for yourself and your beloved, Hydrand dead.
