

Twenty Years In Hierarchy

HIS EXCELLENCY BISHOP KEARNEY, who served as Bishop of Salt Lake City from 1932 to 1937 and who was installed as Bishop of Rochester on November 11, 1937, will mark the 20th anniversary of his consecration next Tuesday, October 28. Photos here recall highlights of his career.
