the high school drive, discussing details with Joseph P. Cuddy, campaign chairman, Judge John L. Naskiewicz and the Rev. Kieran J. Hickey, O' Carm. Judge Naskiewicz and Father Hickey were keynote speakers at the opening dinner.

ELMIRA CAMPAIGN—Elmirans 800 strong swelled the Mark Twain Hotel on Wednesday evening for the kickoff dinner of the campaign which will raise $512,000 for the new Notre Dame

Holy Hours Atone For World's Sins

Chicago—(NC)—As an act of reparation for the sins of the world, 35 continuous Holy Hours were conducted in Old St. Mary's Church of the Paulist Fathers. The Holy Hours began at 1 p.m. October 25 and continued through until midnight on the Feast of Christ the King. Lately from the Chicago area joined with members of the Soul Assurance Prayer Plan, sponsor of the Holy Hours, in the acts of reparation. Each Hour was dedicated to a different country or group of people.

Mt. Carmel High School Campaign Opens In Auburn

(Continued from Page 1) He cited Communism as the greatest threat of the present hour and warned that "the great Soviet hope is the conquest of the world without firing a shot. 'Communism is a faith,' Father Hickey explained. "And it can be opposed effectively only by another faith. Men without faith can never oppose Communism, and most certainly men subscribing to its philosophy will never oppose it." Catholic education is the only true means of opposing the Communist plan of conquering the world, Father Hickey concluded. JUDGE GEORGE NASKIEWICZ, who spoke in behalf of the laity, reviewed Bishop Kearney's career and accomplishments during the fifteen years that he has directed the diocese. The Judge assured Bishop Kearney that his hopes for a Catholic central high school in Auburn would be fulfilled. "The school will be built for the young generations here and to come," he told the Bishop. "They will know because we will tell them that it was built for them—because of you and to honor you in the year of your jubilee. They will know because they will be told generations from now that the Bishop was a great and good man."

Postal Officials Urge Halt On Red China Fund Bids

Washington—(NC)—Postal officials here have asked all persons receiving communications from Red China containing anti-American or Communist propaganda, or solicitations for money, to communicate promptly with the Post Office inspection service. EXTORTION-TYPE letters have been received in this country by families of American servicemen held as prisoners of war in Korea. Circulars and other publications offered to supply the families with news about the prisoners if they paid $25 a year. Postal officials said it was difficult to trace such mailings without the help of the public, since the letters come in sealed envelopes. Some of the mailings have been routed through Czechoslovakia.

Elmira Launches Notre Dame Drive

(Continued from Page 1) devotion to the cause of Christian education," Monsignor Mahoney said. THE DIOCESAN wide fund drive for new high schools is serving as a tribute to Bishop Kearney who will observe the 15th anniversary of his installation as Bishop of Rochester on November 11, which is the closing date of the drive. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. William J. Brien, V.P., pastor of St. Patrick's Church, thanked the leaders and drive members for their cooperation and led the gathering in wishing Bishop Kearney a "Happy birthday." The bishop marked his 68th birthday on Tuesday. CHARLES J. KENNEDY, president of Kennedy-Valve Corporation, and general chairman of the Elmira campaign presided at the dinner and urged all out efforts on the part of the campaign workers. Report dinner meetings, all scheduled in the Mark Twain Hotel, were announced as follows: Monday, November 3;

Thursday, November 6; Sunday, November 9. Closing dinner on November 11 will be held in Rochester at the Culver Road Armory. Present plans call for the opening of Notre Dame de Lourdes High School in September, 1953. Construction is to take place on lower Maple Avenue and the building is to accommodate 600 students. The Sisters of Mercy who will staff the new high school have assumed the 1 million dollar overhead necessary for operation.

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

IF YOUR tongue tastes something sweet, your whole body senses the pleasure. As St. Paul said: "If one member rejoices, the whole body rejoices." We who are Catholics are united with other Catholics all over the world, as the cells of the body are united to one another. This one Mystical Body has one Spirit and one Head.

This truth makes it possible for us to test our faith. Does it make us rejoice to hear, for example, that the Batrak tribe in Indonesia which saw their first missionaries in 1934 today number 45,000 baptized Catholics with 15,000 under instruction? This should thrill us because Our Lord and His Blessed Mother are now adored and revered for the first time among those people and in that area of the earth. Did we have a share in this through the sacrifice of a luxury, or the giving of the equivalent of what we spend on cigarettes for a year?

Does it make you proud to know that our missionaries in Africa under the Propagation and 71% of these are native Africans? Just a hundred years ago ancestors of these women were being sold into slavery. Now they have become "slaves of Christ" through the triple "chains" of poverty, chastity and obedience. What a happiness if our young Catholic college women could say they made a sacrifice of a dance, dinner or a little luxury to support their sisters in Christ!

Does it make you proud to know that our missionaries in China are suffering tortments rather than deny their faith? One 83 year old priest was kept awake for twenty days in the hope that his mind would break and he would deny the Church. On his feet most of the time, the only respite he was allowed was to sit on the floor, his head held high in the air, while his arms were tightly handcuffed behind him. Another priest was forced to squat in Chinese fashion with only his feet touching the ground for 81 consecutive hours. When he fell from exhaustion another priest asked the jailer to give him the punishment instead.

If a speck of dust gets in your eye, your hand comes to its relief. In like manner, we Catholics in America come to the relief of our brethren throughout the world. No man hates his own body, and the people of China, India and Africa are one Body with us because they eat the same Bread and are loved by the same Blessed Mother.

Do not merely give something. The world is too fragile for giving. We need sacrifice so that with the gift goes your love of Our Lord and His Blessed Mother. See what others are doing! GOD LOVE YOU to Mrs. W. C. O'T. who sent the Holy Father's Missions 5 days' wages. . . . GOD LOVE YOU to Mrs. O. E. M. who sent $10 to the Missions and in addition remembers them in her prayers. . . . GOD LOVE YOU to Mrs. F. L. C. for her sacrifice which she considers "just a debt I'm paying so no credit to me." . . . GOD LOVE YOU to Mrs. H. K. who returned her winter coat and sent the Holy Father's Missions the $10 she would have otherwise given to the tailor. . . . GOD LOVE YOU to A. B. W. for $200, a month's salary, in thanksgiving for three successful operations.

Many people listen to the radio and television without ever buying the products which help produce the programs. May all the readers of "God Love You" love the Missions by praying for 50 countries in 5 continents. If you would know what they are, send for a World Mission Rosary. At your request and a $2 offering to the Missions, we will send you one blessed by me.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to the Most Reverend Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 169 East 38th Street, New York 16, New York, or your Diocesan Director Very Rev. Msgr. John S. Randall, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester 4, New York.

Polish Reds Curb Rosary Devotions London—(NC)—Poland's Red officials set up an increased schedule of party meetings and discussion groups for October evenings to prevent people from participating in the traditional evening recitation of the Rosary, according to reports reaching here. Red radio commentators also charged that the Rosary devotions, which sometimes include prayers for the conversion of Russia, were "directed against the Soviet Union" and were used by "American imperialists and warmongers to stir up the people against the people's republic."

Spanish Archbishop Denounces 'Nudism' Madrid—(RNS)—Immodesty in dress was denounced by Archbishop Benjamin de Arriba y Castro of Tarragona who said that "excesses of immoral nudism" were becoming widespread in Spain. In a pastoral letter quoted by Ecclesia, Spanish Catholic Action weekly, the Archbishop said that such excesses were spreading despite "the hierarchy's repeated exhortations and the measures of civil authorities."

COMMONWEAL SAYS:

"... the election of Governor Stevenson and the defeat of General Eisenhower is a matter of vital importance to the nation."

The Commonweal, a politically independent journal of opinion, edited by Catholic laymen, has not endorsed a presidential candidate in the last six elections. This time it supports Governor Stevenson. Let Commonweal's four editors tell you why. Here are excerpts from an editorial bearing their signatures.

ON THE NEED FOR A CHANGE

"When a merely negative argument for change is made, then the argument must be measured against the actual record of those who now demand it. And the record of the Republican Party on the great issues which faced the nation for the past twenty years is, for the most part, simply appalling.

There was, of course, hope that General Eisenhower would redeem that record, but the evidence to date indicates that he has become part of it. Having joined it, his argument for a change to his party's leadership holds terrible dangers.

General Eisenhower has offered nothing but a slogan. Governor Stevenson has dealt with the issues."

THE ISSUES

"And so, while Eisenhower clings to his official boom every McCarthy and Jenner in his own party with one arm, he uses the other to gesticulate angrily against lack of integrity among the Democrats. He has, apparently, subscribed to a novel political doctrine—salvation comes by faith alone.

In the meantime, Adlai Stevenson goes about the land, carefully and brilliantly, defining his stand on things as they are. His position, as defined, represents a revolution in American politics. Subscribing to the broad social and diplomatic policies of the past twenty years, he has yet demonstrated a genuine awareness of the dangers of over-centralization."

INDEPENDENCE

"Much has been said of political 'captivity' in this campaign, most of it by the Republicans. The Democrats should be grateful to their opponents for bringing up the subject, because it becomes increasingly obvious that there is a 'captive' candidate around, and the poor man's plight grows daily more pathetic.

Unable or unwilling to be himself, General Eisenhower resembles more and more those elements in his party which his nomination was supposed to have obscured. It is not a pleasing resurgence. His 'high level' campaign has degenerated into a shockingly irresponsible mixture of meaningless slogans, appeals to frustration, and downright demagoguery.

General Eisenhower once pleaded with Congress not to slash funds allocated by the Administration for European defense. Does he now actually believe that the record of John Bricker, a notorious isolationist in the Senate is 'distinguished'? Does he, finally, mean what he says when he calls for the election of any and all Republican candidates, regardless of how deplorable their record may be, in order to further a 'dynamic' foreign policy? "

"We hope that the positive and rational approach of Governor Stevenson will win over his opponents' dependence on frustration and fear, because we believe in the validity of the democratic process. For those reasons among others, we wholeheartedly endorse the candidacy of Adlai Stevenson."
