ALL IN THE FAMILY

Huehuetenango, Guatemala — An old Indian was praying before a statue of Saint Joseph as Brother Felix Fournier, Maryknoll Brother from Brooklyn, installed electrical fixtures in the church here.

FOLLOWING THE Indian custom of prayer, the man spoke to the statue in a conversational voice, but he addressed the Sacred Heart. Brother Felix interrupted him to explain.

"This is not the Sacred Heart; this is Saint Joseph."

THE OLD INDIAN thought a moment and then, before continuing his prayers, said:

"I'm sorry, Saint Joseph. You know I'm near sighted. Your good Son looks so much like you, I can't, with my poor eyes, tell you apart."

Scholar Denies UNESCO Endorses Birth Control

Cincinnati — (NC) — Recent charges that the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) opposes religious schools and favors birth control are "inaccurate," according to Dr. Raymond F. McCoy, dean of Xavier University's graduate school.

Doctor McCoy, recently re-elected to the executive committee of the U. S. National Commission for UNESCO, emphasized that there is a clear-cut difference between views expressed by individual UNESCO staff and conference members and pamphlets issued by UNESCO, on one hand, and the official views of UNESCO approved at its annual conference or by its executive committee, on the other.

"THE ONLY official views of UNESCO are those approved by its annual conference or its executive committee," Doctor McCoy stated. "Neither has expressed any opinion on religious schools or birth control."

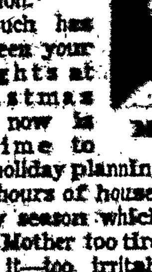
Plans For Christmas

By Mary L. Snyder

Each holiday season I hear many homemakers, particularly mothers, remarking, "Next year, there will be none of this rushing. I am going to get an early start and eliminate this last minute confusion."



Mrs. Snyder

If such has ever been your thoughts at Christmas time, now is the time to start holiday planning. There are extra hours of housework at the holiday season which sometimes leaves Mother too tired and—let's admit it—too irritable to enter into the true spirit of the Holy season.

Now is not too soon to plan for an Advent Wreath. Last year we discovered that purple candles are difficult to buy at this time of the year. I went to several places before locating the last four a local merchant had. A pleasant family project for the Saturday before the First Sunday in Advent would be to have the family help you assemble an Advent Wreath.

FIRST A BASE IS needed particularly if you you plan to suspend your Advent Wreath, as is customary. We have had a wooden frame made which each year we wind with evergreens. In the wooden base are places for the four candles.

Many people use a metal coat-hanger as a base on which to twine the evergreens. Others use circular salad molds, for receptacles for the greens. These latter are not suspended, but are placed on a table or in the center of the dining room table.

Because of advertising we are all aware that the Christmas greeting cards are now ready for our inspection and selection. In a stationery store the other day I concluded that the drive to put Christ back into Christmas is bearing results at least on Christmas cards. The cards were not only reverent in their treatment of the religious theme, but artistically satisfying as well.

* * *

ANOTHER SUGGESTION of a family activity, which would have to be inaugurated before the last minute, would be a simple nativity play produced by the members of a family or by the children in an immediate neighborhood.

There are several simple Christmas plays written for young people. Any teacher or librarian could suggest catalogs of Christmas plays easily adaptable to home use. In a family where there are older children a simple play could be written by those in the upper grades of high school.

Given on Christmas Eve before bedtime or after the bountiful Christmas dinner such a play would serve as a reminder of the real meaning of Christmas.

Since the responsibility of making Christmas a holy season rests basically with us mothers it is not too soon for us to make our plans and outline our projects.

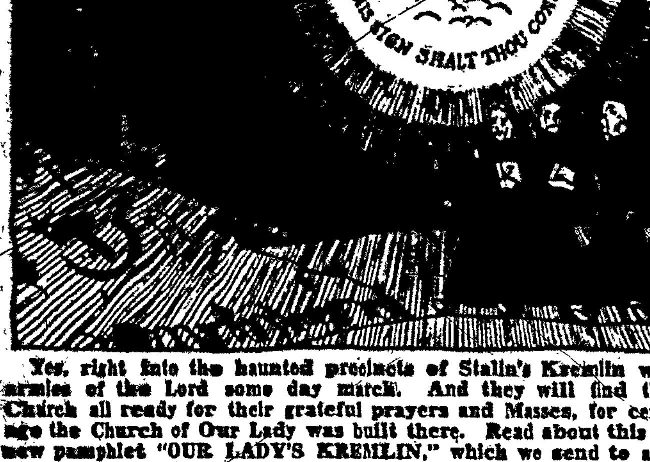
INTO THE KREMLIN!



Yes, right into the haunted precincts of Stalin's Kremlin will the armies of the Lord some day march. And they will find there a Church all ready for their grateful prayers and Masses, for centuries ago the Church of Our Lady was built there. Read about this in our new pamphlet "OUR LADY'S KREMLIN," which we send to all who give a mite for the new Shrine Chapel of Our Lady of Fatima, which we are now building in Ethiopia. Your $10 gift adds a stone to it.

CHRIST'S CLOAK

Do you know that Saint Martin, feasted on Nov. 11, divided his cloak with a beggar, only to find that the beggar was Christ Himself. If you give $10 for a precious food package to be distributed to our poor before Christmas, you will find Christ in them.

WAY OF TEARS

Nov. 14 brings back to us the memory of the holy martyr, St. Josaphat, who died for the faith on the borders of Russia. Since World War II we have been training many students for the priesthood, who had to flee before the Russians. Can you give $600 to adopt one?

HERE IS A STORY!

There are many saints who bear the name of Gregory but only one bears the name "Wonder Worker." He believed implicitly the words of Our Lord: "If you have faith, you can move mountains!" St. Gregory the Wonder Worker wanted to build a church on a spot where there was a mountain, so he prayed that the mountain would be taken away and it was! The mountains in the way of our projected Near East chapels are our lack of the means to build them. One costs $3,000 but even a dollar to the Chapel-of-the-Month Club will do much. Right now Bishop Tarayil is begging us for help in building five modest chapels in his diocese of Kottayam, India. Perhaps you can make one a memorial to your dear departed.

WHAT IS? We have just published a new leaflet entitled "What Is a Basilian?" It explains why we ask for more "Basilians," who give a dollar monthly to this Club for our poor schools. Why not ask for a copy? Remember that your dollar monthly to one of our seven Mission Clubs does wonders.

TIES OF LOVE

Near East friends may gain some priceless plenary indulgences for their beloved dead during November. The days are Nov. 14, 17, 18, 21 and 30. Why not join? One dollar enrolls you in this Holy Father's Mission Aid for a whole year, five dollars will enroll the whole family. Or you may wish to have Mass offered by a Near East missionary during this month of the Holy Souls.

LOVELY MARTYR

In the catacombs of Rome you will find honored the name of a lovely young girl martyr, St. Petronilla. In far off Palestine another young lady, Sister Petronilla, is now being trained for that slow martyrdom of living and dying daily for God's poor. Can you make this Sister of the Rosary your adopted daughter, giving the $300 necessary for her two years' training? You may give from month to month.

AS CHRISTMAS APPROACHES you may want to see our beautiful sound 16 mm. film "The Holy Land." The rental fee of $5 is used for our poor Palestinian refugees. YOU MAY ALSO WISH to have Masses offered at Christmas time in the Shrine of Our Lord's Nativity at Bethlehem. If you write now, these can be arranged by Near East missionaries.
