Deacon, the Rev. John P. O'Beirne; Subdeacon, the Rev. Daniel Sullivan; Chaplains to the Bishop, Very Rev. Alexander A. Beaton, S.A., and the Rev. Patrick H. Cleary, M.M.; Master of Ceremonies to the Bishop, Very Rev. John E. Maney.

First Master of Ceremonies, the Rev. Leo G. Schwab; Second Master, Rev. Alfred Horst; Acolytes, Rev. Joseph M. Dalley and Rev. Bernard C. Newcomer; Thaurifer, Rev. Thomas J. Cleary; Cross Bearer, Rev. Joseph D. Donovan; Book bearer, Rev. Harold Rogers; Candel Bearer, Rev. Daniel Hogan.

The choir was directed by Sister Austin and Mrs. Madeline Lincoln was organist.

In the procession preceding the Mass were the uniformed Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus from Elmira; members of the Fourth Degree Assembly of Corning in charge of Dr. Hugh A. T. Keenan, faithful navigator. Accompanying the Bishop were about 25 priests.

THE FRONT BOWS of the church were occupied by the Sisters of St. Joseph, visiting clergymen, the KC guard of honor and special guests of Father Cannon. Mayor George E. Keenan headed a group of city officials which included City Atty. Frank Swain, Police Chief Roman J. Laurence, Fire Chief J. A. Doolittle, Public Works Sup. Phillip Grannan and Alderman Joseph E. Hayes.

Local industry and business were represented by Amory Houghton, chairman of the board of Corning Glass Works; George D. Macbeth, CGW vicepresident; controller; W. Allen Underhill, president and publisher of The Evening Leader; and George H. Bevan, managing editor. Also attending the Mass was County Election Commissioner James F. Hallahan, former Corning mayor.

A dinner for the visiting priests was served by the parish hall Sunday afternoon and at a nearly 400 parishioners and friends attended a reception in the hall.

Mass was celebrated Monday morning for deceased parishioners and on Tuesday for living parishioners, benefactors and friends.

Creation Topic Scheduled In Hotel Inquiry Series

The Rev. Raymond M. Kenny of St. Andrew's Seminary faculty will be heard in the Catholic Information Series at Hotel Seneca on Monday evening, Nov. 8 at 8 p.m.

His topic will be "From Dust to Unending Life" (God the Creator and the Nature of Man.)

OUTLINING HIS talk for non-Catholics interested in learning about Catholic belief, Father Kenny said:

"The origin of all things is in the Creator, however what does the church say on the question of Evolution. God's greatest creative masterpiece are His creatures of intelligence, Angels and men.

"Whatever we advert to it or not, Angels have a strong influence on our lives. Man has within himself a breath of life, called a soul, which can never be extinguished. This soul is destined for an eternity of happiness or of one deserving of sorrow."

THE LIFE OF

JAMES CARDINAL GIBBONS

By John Tracy Ellis

This monumental biography reveals a churchman who was friend to President and Washington elite, and who helped resolve some of the most painful issues in American Church-State relations. It is not only a responsible book regarding the Cardinal's life; it is also an authoritative record of social, religious, and economic issues during the years between the Civil War and World War I. The author delves deeply and objectively into such questions as the so-called "American Heresy"; the growing power of the Church in an industrialized America; the colonization of labor; the slow and painful change of immigrants into the stream of American life; the differences among the various sects of Catholicism; and the question of papal infallibility.
