

400 Fans To Accompany Aquinas Squad To Erie

Four hundred members of Aquinas Institute student body, their parents and Men's Club members will be in the stands tonight (Nov. 7) in Erie, when the Irish tangle with Cathedral Prep.

This will be the first time since 1944 that an Aquinas team has performed on a foreign field.

A SPECIAL excursion train of eight coaches will transport fans to Erie. The train, under the supervision of Rev. John Wilson, C.S.B., and Rev. Albert Butler, C.S.B., will leave the New York Central station at 4:30 p.m. today and return Saturday at 2:00 p.m.

Due to the generosity of three streets of Aquinas, the special school band will also make the trip with their team.

A glitzy parade from the Erie railroad station to the stadium has been planned with the Aquinas band leading the way.

Schiano Named Fresh Assumption SAC Aide

Charles (Chuck) Schiano, an Aquinas Institute graduate, was elected Freshman Representative to the Students' Administrative Council at Assumption College, Windsor, Ont. according to the "Purple and White," the school paper.

He entered Assumption to take a Pre-Law course. He was elected to the S.A.C. post after a spirited campaign.

At Aquinas, Schiano played intramural football and is doing the same on one of the football teams at Assumption. He is on the "Assumption" year book staff and is trying out for the varsity basketball team.

YES, THEY LEARN YOUNG

"Chop" Miller, son of Ed Mack Miller, associate editor of the DeSales Catholic Register system of newspapers, is easily one of the youngest pilot trainees in the world. Just turned six, he has nearly 100 hours in the air, says he wants to be a jet pilot for a while then a pilot. His dad, Ed Miller, formerly of St. Paul Minn., served as a pilot in the Air Force and with a commercial airline and has more than 6,000 logged air hours to his credit. (NO Photos)

Tiny Irish Grid Squads Lists 2 Games At Villa

The Tiny Irish football team of St. Joseph's Villa will be hosts to their sponsors Sunday, Nov. 9. They have designated this occasion "Good Jobs Day."

A double header game will be held on the Villa grounds, 3300 Dewey Avenue, starting at 1 p.m. The Villa B squad will play the Aquinas "B" in a return match and the A squad will be pitted against the strong Sacred Heart Cathedral eleven.

COACH JOE O'BRIEN will start Robert Smith, David St. John, James Sheehan and Larry Valdez in the backfield for the Tiny Irish. Norman Johnson is a sure starter at center.

The Villa cheerleaders have been practicing all week under the guidance of the Nazareth Academy yell leaders.

Officials for these games will be: Home - Fred Olson, Donald "Bucky" Lyons and Frank "Hunk" Vadas.

THE NORTH EAST Kiwanians, led by their president, Harold Wilson, will send a contingent to the game. The North East Kiwanians Club is sponsoring the uniforms for the Villa boys.

Among the "Good Jobs" who have lent their support to the Tiny Irish are: Judge James Sheehan, Deputy Sheriff Joe Kennedy, Tom Riley, 10th Ward Republican leader; Bernice Ochs, Lew Dietz, Ira Sapoznik, Walt Little, Supervisor Gordon Howe, Tom O'Connor, Len Sells, Harvey Miller, Joe Scheuch and Frank Gunn.

Rev. Austin B. Harina, Chaplain at the Villa, invites the public to the games.

Immaculate Youth Center To Offer 2 Types Of Orchestras

Two different types of orchestras will furnish music for the regular Friday night dance at the Immaculate Auditorium Nov. 14. Music for round dancing will be played by Joe Nolan and his orchestra. Square dance numbers will be handled by the Melody Makers with Jerry LeVoy as caller. LeVoy is a member of Immaculate parish.

Sue Schaefer and Mary Schur of Mercy High School are co-directors. They have announced that each orchestra will play for an interval of thirty minutes in order to provide a well-balanced program for the evening.

This evening will be an exceptional one, for ordinarily one orchestra plays for both types of dance numbers. At this special party each orchestra will adhere to its own specialty.

The Immaculate Youth Club has arranged a Thanksgiving Harvest Dance for Wednesday, Nov. 26.

This dance Friday, Nov. 7th, is being sponsored by the 1952 graduating class of Nazareth Academy.
