

'Sidewalks Of New York' Musical Set At St. Boniface

The gay nineties musical, "Sidewalks of New York", will be presented by the high school students of St. Boniface parish on Nov. 23, 24 and 25, in the school auditorium.

Old favorites such as "I'll Take You Home Again Kathleen," the "Trolley Song," "Over the Hill to the Fourhouse," "Everyday is Ladies Day with Me," and many others are featured in the production.

Elizabeth Hayes

A large cast, all members of the parish, includes students from Nazareth Academy, Our Lady of Mercy High School, Monroe High School and Aquinas Institute. DIRECTION OF the play is in the hands of Elizabeth Hayes of The Catholic Theatre, assisted by Joan Kinsky. Both are students at Nazareth College.

Rev. Edward E. Steinkirchner, assistant pastor, will supervise the production.

Other members of the staff are Donald Scheg, stage manager, assisted by Alfreda Arp and John Keating. Head of the program committee is May Hosenfeld.

The cast includes William Muart, Barbara Le Barr, Mary Patricia Klee, Robert Masora, Robert Enright, Margaret Fitzpatrick, Dorothy Croxson, Robert Kinsky, Skip Provost, Arthur Aramini, specialty acts, and members of the singing and dancing chorus.

Radio Stressed

Rome —(RNS)— The importance of radio in spreading Christian doctrine and fighting atheistic materialism was stressed here by Bishop Francis Charles of Louisiana, Geneva and Freiburg at a meeting of the International Catholic Association for Radio and Television.

TALENT AWARDS PRESENTED

Packards Win Top Prize In St. Stanislaus Show

The Annual Amateur Show sponsored by the St. Stanislaus Holy Name Society, was held Sunday, Nov. 9, at St. Stanislaus Auditorium. George Walker, Chairman was assisted by a capable committee.

John DeJohn acted as Master of Ceremonies. The Val Mates School of Dancing provided three acts of professional talent as an added attraction.

There were eighteen acts in the amateur competition. Winners of the show were picked through an applause meter read by Rev. Chester M. Kiocek, Spiritual Director of the Society and two volunteers from the audience.

AWARDED THE First Place 24-inch Trophy and a $25.00 Savings Bond were Kenneth and Bill Packard who presented an instrumental and singing novelty.

Second Prize Trophy, awarded to Bernice Reeder, who sang "Tell Me Why." The Third Place Trophy was won by Joe and Bennie Salzano, by their rendition of a clarinet duet of "Rock and Rye and Beer Barrel Polka."

Fourth place, won by John Lukaszewicz, singing "High Noon." Fifth place, awarded to Bobby Pieniazek, for a dance solo.

The Committee expresses their gratitude to all the contestants for their splendid performances.

The group will be sponsored on various evenings during the pre-holiday season by parish societies of St. Margaret Mary, Holy Rosary, Holy Family, St. Helen, Our Lady of Good Counsel, Holy Redeemer and Ladies Auxiliary, Knights of Columbus.

NEW - And Now

On TV, Paul Winchell, onetime polio victim, has put the ancient art of ventriloquism back on its feet.

He and his sidekick, Jerry Mahoney, are seen by millions each week. Winchell seems to have developed a brand new technique, a revolution that is slowly but surely getting his dummy under remote control.

Jerry can already walk, dance, play drums, smoke a cigarette, type, move his fingers and tongue, and box.

ANOTHER SWITCH of Winchell's is pantomime between dummy and mentor, a complete turnabout for an art form that has always depended on conversation.

Even Winchell doesn't know how this is all going to end, but it's terrific entertainment.

TUNE IN ON CBS' "Church of the Air" this Sunday. Speaker will be Rev. Raymond P. Cahill, Director of Television Communication of the Archdiocese of Washington, D. C.

The Holy Name Academy Glee Club of Washington, under the direction of Sister Gertrude Cecilia, will provide the music.

KATHARINE (THE GREAT) Cornell, first lady of the American stage, came to Rochester last week end. Miss Cornell brought with her a top-notch cast, her own supreme abilities and an "humbus-down" play, "The Constant Wife."

If you remember Cornell as Juliet, Elizabeth Barrett and Joan of Arc, you remember the queen of them all. Once more before I die, or she does, I would like to see the great lady do a play worthy of her "once in a hundred years" talent.

You'll be seeing "The Hound of Heaven" in the movies before too long. The immortal classic from the pen of English poet, Francis Thompson, has been adapted for motion picture.
