Hiroshima Lesson Told By Priest To 300 In Auburn

Auburn — About three hundred members of the Rosary & Scapular Society of St. Mary's Church assembled in Lyceum Hall Monday evening for their annual covered dish supper. Miss Mary Falvey welcomed the members and guests and introduced Mrs. William Kanalley, toastmistress.

Group singing under the direction of Mrs. Ernest Twoomey and Miss Mary Dunn was enjoyed throughout the evening.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. William E. Cowen addressed the women. He asked the members to imitate the virtues of Mary, the Mother of God who is the model of all Catholic Women.

Rev. Paul Lynch, Rev. Charles McCarthy, Rev. Robert Downs, Rev. Charles Sullivan, assistant pastors, were called upon and spoke briefly to the group. Mrs. Joseph Murphy and Mrs. Joseph Hickey co-chairmen of the supper were assisted by a large committee.

The Cotton Town Minstrels under the direction of Mrs. Herbert House was well received. Gerald Conroy was the musical director, with Gerald Reilley playing the drums.

REV. E. LEO McMANNUS, a professor of St. Bernard's Seminary, Rochester, and a former assistant of Msgr. Cowen for seven years, was the guest speaker.

Tracing briefly the growth of the Catholic faith in Japan from the landing of St. Francis Xavier on August 15, 1549, the Feast of the Assumption of Mary, to the erection of the New Memorial Church of Peace, dedicated to St. Mary of the Assumption in Hiroshima, Father McMannus stressed the Fatima message of prayer and mortification lest another and even greater catastrophe visit the world.

"Mysteriously do we find etched in the tragic story of Hiroshima the lessons written by the Hand of God. It was the Buddhist priests, descendants of those priests who had banished St. Francis Xavier from Japan after he had succeeded in planting the mustard seed of faith four hundred years ago, who suggested to the Catholic Missionaries in Hiroshima such a Memorial Church for peace.

"WHAT HAS happened here," they said after August 6, 1945, 'we do not want to happen again — anywhere'. When three years more will have passed,' when August 6, 1955 will find the Citizens of Hiroshima gathering to mark the tenth anniversary of bells in the Peace Church of St. that fateful day, and when the Mary of the Assumption will peal forth over a city that had been so horribly blistered and devastated, the prayer of all of us is that the inscription on the largest of the four steel bells will be a reality, not only in Hiroshima but throughout the world: Steel, basic element of war, calls the peoples to peace."

Those who took part in the Minstrels were: Miss Margaret Gaynor, Mrs. Henry Pfeiffer, Mrs. John Geherin, Mrs. William Ferer, Mrs. Charles Phillips, Mrs. Timothy Coughlin, Mrs. John Gagan;

Mrs. Harold Wright, Miss Laura Falley, Miss Mary Dunn, Mrs. Ernest Twomey, Mrs. Michael Cervo, Mrs. Fred Keesee, Mrs. William Kanalley, Miss Eileen McCarthy, Mrs. Harry Nation, Mrs. John Orr, Mrs. Joseph Kiernan, Miss Teresa Sullivan, Miss Adelaide Twoomey, Miss Catherine Burns, Mrs. Thomas Englert, Mrs. Lucian Signorelli.
