to appreciate the teaching of true friendship.

She attributed the progress of the hospital, in its accreditation of the School of Nursing, its outstanding work during two polo outbreaks and its expansion, as due "not to one person, not to one group, but to all the citizens of Hornell."

IN CONCLUSION, she expressed appreciation to Sister M. Aquinas, as her administrator, the Women's Board, Board of Managers and the medical staff. Group singing was directed by Mrs. Edward Scott. Music was by King Hammond's orchestra.

Here for the occasion, from out of town, were Mrs. Clarence McDonald of Seneca Falls and Mrs. William Martin of Auburn, sisters of Miss McKeivitt. Miss Helen Winkler, Miss Willie, Mrs. James Heywood and Miss Margaret Barry of Rochester and Miss Elizabeth Almo of Bath, formerly of St. James' nursing staff.

Friars Conventual Lauded For Century Of Progress

On the following day, a Solemn Requiem Mass was offered in Assumption Church for the deceased Friars of the four American Provinces.

The Mass was chanted by Father Hess, assisted by the four American Provincials. The century ceremonies came to a close with a Plenary Meeting of the Ministers Provincial.

He pledged continued fidelity to the Bishops of the American Hierarchy and to those prelates under whom the Friars of the four American Provinces labor in South and Central America, Japan, the islands of the Pacific, and in China.

During the banquet, a cablegram was received from Mgr. Giovanni E. Morand, Vatican Pro-Secretary for Ordinary Affairs, imparting the Pope's Apostolic Blessing.

In the afternoon a Mission Exhibit was staged in the Assumption Hall, showing the work of the Conventuals-Franciscans throughout the world.

The assembly friars and priests were again addressed by Father Hess, who described the losses and sufferings experienced by the Order in China and other countries.
