

St. Stephen's Male Choir Rehearses For Christmas

Geneva.—No musical group is busier right now than the St. Stephen's Men and Boys Choir.

They're looking forward to Christmas and to their program for midnight Mass. That means special singing on the part of the choir which is now rehearsing for the "Christmas Carol Mass" to be sung on Christmas eve.

With a complement of 40 voices, the choir has begun its second season under the direction of Leland Flora, well-known director.

Lull, Francis Zeck, Ronald Coursey, Bernard Adams, Richard McCarthy, Philip Larkin, David Weyneth, and Francis Libera.

BOYS SECTION this year is receiving additional instruction and training in the form of an "extra rehearsal" a week under the direction of James Lynch.

Tenor section includes: Anthony Alvaro, John Buckley, Gabriel Gillotti, George Handman, John Hart, Robert O'Brien, Henry Sabino and Edward Donahue; alto section: Bud Alvaro, Richard Desilets, Earl Harrison, Francis Crupi, John Hart Jr. and Kevin Powers.

Right now the choir members are concentrating on their Christmas Mass.
