All Wondered At Things Told By Shepherds

VERYTHING WAS RIGHT AND everything was wrong on the night that Christ was born. All that happened at Bethlehem on the first Christmas happened the way God planned it. Nothing happened the way the world would have expected it, if it had known. All was right for God and all was wrong for the world. The whole story of Christ's birth at Bethlehem was all God's own doing, even the least details. Scores of poets have dreamed stories of gods walking the earth but the madest poets in their madest hours never dreamed anything like what actually happened at Bethlehem.

NO SAGE HAS EVER spun a tale to match the story whispered by the Shepherds to their neighbors in the early darkness of the first Christmas morning, "This day is born to you a Saviour who is Christ the Lord!"

If men had been allowed to arrange for the birth of God's Son into the world, we can suspect the event would have been rather commonplace in its circumstances.

No doubt men would have chosen a regal castle rather than a rude cave as the stage for Christ's advent. Men would have arrayed the new born Infant in soft garments and cradled Him in royal cushions. There would have been no Joseph who became a father without gaining fatherhood. There would have been no Virgin-Mother who gained motherhood without losing virginity. If it had known, the world would have greeted the Babe of Bethlehem with all worldly pomp. There would have been the fanfare of trumpets and a gathering of the Lords of the earth. But there would have been no Shepherds. Certainly they would not have been the first on the scene to greet the Saviour of the world.

GOD, HOWEVER, PLANNED things differently. The Shepherds are almost the best part of the Christmas Story after, of course, the Mother and Child.

Crude, ignorant and ill-mannered were these herdsmen who lived a lonely, nomadic life on the plains with their flocks. They were despised as outcasts, even reputed as thieves, by the Scribes and Pharisees, the intellectual and social rulers of the day. Rough and self-reliant, these rustic plainsmen were as ready to raise their clubs against a suspicious stranger as they were ready in repelling wolves from their sheep. Who would choose these lowly, ill-reputed men for the honor of being the first to hear of the Saviour's birth. Goddid choose them for such a role. The Shepherds, outcasts from all polite company, were the first ones ushered into the secret-court of the Son of God.

KEEPING THE NIGHT WATCHES over their flocks, these forgotten men never suspected what was happening behind their backs in the little town of Bethlehem. Nothing much ever happened

But suddenly an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the brightness of God shone round about them, and they feared with a great lear.

And the angel said to them: "Fear not; for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people. For this day is born to you a Saviour who is Christ the Lord, in the city of David. And this shall be a sign unto you. You shall find the infant wrapped in awaddling clothes, and laid in

AND SUDDENLY THERE WAS with the angel a multitude of the heavenly army, praising God, and saying: "Glory to God in the highest: and on earth peace to men of good will," And it came to pass, after the angels departed from them into heaven, the Shepherds said to one another, "Let us go over to Bethlehem, and let us see this word that is come to pass, which the Lord hath shewed to us." And they came with haste; and they found Mary and Joseph, and the Infant lying in the manger. And seeing, they understood of the word that had been spoken to them concerning this child. And all that heard wondered: and at those things told them by the Shepherds.

Here we see the divine humor of Christmas. On the night Christ was born Christmas sermon. all the sages and seers were fast asleep in their beds. Only the simple Shepherds were awake to what was going on in Bethlehem. Here is the best joke Heaven ever played on those whose minds are proud. It is easy to see why the Shepherds' Story airs both the Christian and the athelst, one with hope and the other with hate. In both cases it is the same thing—the scene of unkempt, ignorant outcasts stumbling into a cave to be the first to see the Divine Smile on the sacred Face of God!

Yugoslav Communist regime has broken off diplomatic relations with the Vatican.

Belgrade Radio announced that Deputy Foreign Minister Ales Bebler had handed to Magr. Silvio Oddi, charge d'affaires of the Papal Nunciature here, a hote asking the Holy See to withdraw its diplomatic representative.

The Belgrade station said the eason for the diplomatic rupture was "the Vatican's interference in Church State relations in Yugoslavia

(Shortly after the announce ment, the Rome Radio quoteda Vatican apokesman as saying "there is sorrow but no surprise in the Vatican at the Yugoslav government's decision.")

The Yugoslav move followed by less than 24 hours a speech by Premier Marshal Tito bitter-ly attacking the Holy See.

The speech, made at a meeting of railway workers at Smedrevska Polanka, a Serbian village, climaxed an anti-Vallcan campaign that has been in progress for several months.
