Christmas Day TV Mass

From Mercy Chapel Set Solemn High Mass from the Chapel of Our Lady of Mercy Motherhouse will be viewed on Christmas Day from 9 to 10:15 m. over WHAMTV.

The Very Bey. John F. Murphy, C.S.B., president of St. John Fisher College will be celebrant. The Deacon and Subdeancon will come from St. Bernard's Seminary, while minor offices will be filled by St. Andrew's seminarians.

Rev. Richard Tormey, chaplain to the Sisters of Mercy, will preach the sermon and Rev. E. Leo McMannus, professor at St. Bernard' Saminary, will act as commentator. The Sisters' Choir, under the direction of Sister Mary Ed-wins, R.S.M., will present a special program of Christmas music and sing the Ordinary of the Mass.

John Crosby, WHAM director, assisted by a staff of twelve engineers, is in charge of the production.

The program of the Mass is being televised especially for the edification of those who are ill and "shutins".
