HE Russian peasantry for centuries have had a curious tra-work when the Wise Men passed from the East on their way to Bethlehem to find the Christ Child. Knocking at her door, they said: "Come with us; we have seen His star in the East and we go to worship Him." She answered: "I have some housework to do and there are some things I bought yesterday I have to put away. When this is done I will follow." But her work was never done, and the Three Kings passed on their way, and the star shone no more on the darkened heavens. She never saw the Christ Child but she is still seeking and yearning and trying to make up for it by carlog for His chil-

Everyone, like Baboushka let pass the thousand graces which poured into the soul from the Christ Child through His Mother Mary. Souls will be lost not only from the evil they have done, but also because of the good that was left undone.

The sun is shining, but we hide from its light; the river is near but we will not wash; the stars becken us to meditation about God, but we look down; grace calls us to sacrifice for the spread of the faith in musionary lands and we heed it ript. The lost opportunity is one of the saddest stories of tongue

Bantu, dig a well for a Moslem, or build a chapel for the convert

If you wish to make up for your unresponsiveness to God's grace through life, be a Baboushka. Then you will have a
