Church Opened At Painted Post

(Continued from Page 7) The new parish was officially created May 1 and Father Rogers was named its first pastor.

Father Rogers was born at Rochester and was graduated from St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries. He was ordained on June 15, 1935, by Archbishop Edward Mooney, now Cardinal Archbishop of Detroit.

The church proper is 90 feet long and 45 feet wide and will seat 340 persons in the main nave. The balcony will seat an additional 60. The parish hall, located under the church, will accommodate 450. The rectory, 34 feet by 32 feet, is attached to the church.

The church, both in the interior and in the exterior, is beautiful in its simplicity. The altar, with its large red and gold cloth backdrop, which serves as the background for a large Crucifix, immediately attracts attention to the focal point of worship, where the Sacrifice of Calvary is re-enacted in the Mass. The altar, its furnishings and the Stations of the Cross are from the studios of William J. Woerner and Sons, Rochester.

At the Christmas services, a crib made by William Cumiskey occupied a portion of the side sanctuary. Sunday Masses from now on will be at 7, 8:30, 10 and 11. Father Rogers said. Parking space is available in the rear of the Belvedere Fruit Co. and the Grand Union Store on North Hamilton St.
