

Talk By German Student Listed For DCCW Meeting

A talk by an exchange student from Germany and installation of officers will be on the program at the monthly meeting of Rochester Deaneary Council of Catholic Women

The guest speaker will be Hildegard Roemer of Bad-Salzungen, in the British occupied sector of Germany who is now a junior at Nazareth Academy.

While in America, Hildegard is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Glehill of Irondequoit.

MRS. JOSEPH SCHNORR, president, will call for the report of the Nominating Committee. Following the adoption of the report by the members, the officers for the year will be installed by the Rev. Louis Hohmann, moderator of the Deaneary.

Hostesses for the social hour which follows the meeting are: Mrs. Roy Leary, president of St. Elizabeth's Guild; Mrs. Colin Tracey, president of St. Gerard's Mothers' Circle; and Mrs. Raymond Yeoman, president of St. Helen's Altar Society.

Members of the Notre Dame Women's Organization will sponsor a luncheon meeting at the Chatterbox Club, Saturday, Jan. 17 beginning at 12:15 p.m.

Slater M. Paulette, head of the Department of Sociology, Nazareth College, will be guest speaker.

Mrs. Richard T. Sullivan, president, has appointed Mrs. Donald Scametti chairman assisted by Mesdames Arthur Curran, Victor De Simon, Charles Guzzetta, John Heagney, Harold Miller, Charles O'Brien and Charles Norton.

One of the greatest improvements in the church is in the treatment of the woodwork throughout. The finish of the pews was removed and then restained and filled to the tone of light oak.

The sedilia and other furniture of the Sanctuary and chapels have undergone a similar treatment; all of this part of the plan to make the whole interior lighter and more pleasing in color.
