Aquinas Institute Debating Society won top place in its first major debate tournament, Saturday, at Syracuse when the boys came out on top in the Christian Brothers Academy tourney.

The Aquinas debaters after placing second and third in two previous tournaments held at Oswego and Hamilton College, under the guidance of the Rev. Joseph A. O'Reilly, C.S.B., won over some outstanding debaters in the state.

Competing in three rounds of debate against Norwich High School, Christian Brothers Academy of Syracuse, also teams from Utica and Canastota, the Aquinas lads came out on top with 13 victories and five losses.

AQUINAS STUDENTS who comprised the victorious squad were: Joseph Valenti, Pat Suraci, Larry Oberlies, Donald Pandina, William Clair, Richard Mastrodonata, Michael Tomaino, Charles Vacanti, Gary Martina, Edward Owens, Terry Sheehan and Donald Gray.

Father O'Reilly said this week that it has only been during the past two years that this debating society has participated in statewide competition. Its members not only debate on the highest high school level, but are active in every major oratorical and speaking contest in the state.

Two weeks ago, the society president, Larry Oberlies, won the Monroe County Oratorical Finals. Ambition of each debater is to be selected to represent Aquinas in state and national Catholic debating championship contests.

Many future tournaments and debates, both at Aquinas and out of town are scheduled. Judges for home meets are Catholic Speakers Bureau members.
