CYA Lists Parents' Night; Opens Indoor Golf Class

By HOWARD F. MEATH
C.Y.A. Program Director

A Parents' Night program will be staged by grammar school girl members in the Columbus Youth Association Gymnasium on Friday, Feb. 6, at 7:30 p. m. All parents and friends of the girls are cordially invited. The program will consist of a demonstration of exercises, dancing, tumbling games and the scene will shift to the swimming pool where the girls will demonstrate their ability in the water. The entire show is under the direction of our two girl instructors, Miss Lorraine Porter and Miss Dorothy Bock.

Another new phase of activity was introduced into the CYA program beginning the first week in February. "Howie" DeAngelus, associate golf pro at Oak Hill Country Club, has joined the CYA staff of instructors to present a high-type of golf instruction and golf etiquette.

Mr. DeAngelus is at the CYA each day to talk to interested persons about golf and for registration. Anyone may register also by calling Baker 7500, Ext. 10.

Individual or group instruction is given. Here is a chance to form your own group and learn the game of golf.

Graney's 565 Top In Auburn Loop

Auburn — Paul J. Graney was in consistent form, Sunday, as he rolled games of 190, 190 and 185 for a 565 total to lead the bowlers of The St. Aloystus Holy Name Bowling League. Graney came within five pins of winning the triplicate award. But despite Graney's fine bowling, Canlis was able to win only one point from the "Fighting Irish" of Notre Dame.

Bernard Osterman, the sparkplug of Notre Dame, led his team with a 519 total and a 213 single; Freddy Gilbert started well with a 205 game which gave him a 516 total to help his team to victory. Wilson Long had second high for the day 549 with a 201 game to lead Gonzaga to a four to nothing win of the power-house Georgetown. Old reliable John Bodnar who makes it a habit of rolling in the 540 class came up with 545 and a 214 single game to help Gonzaga to victory. Father Hatley's 512 helped toward pin-total.

Vern Plinczney with a 200 game and a 544 total and Bud Wilson with 520 were best for Georgetown. Jack Madden's great responsibility for the March of Dimes Campaign has had an effect on his bowling — but watch out when the campaign is over. Bill Dunn's 530, Captain John Donnelly's 544 and Bal Balboa's 519 managed an even split with Loyola for Santa Clara. Balboa's 192 was a great help in winning the last game by six pins. Coach Joe Stapleton had 516 along with his great moral support which helped the Champs avoid defeat. Captain Bill Bishop started slowly but ended with a 201 game to garner 528 and lead his Loyola team to their even break with Santa Clara. Bernie Audet is coming back to form with 517; Joe Spols helped with 504 and Leonard Capria got Loyola started right in the first game with his 214.

Boys' Sports Program At Immaculate To Mark 2nd Year With Hi-Chair Bouts

This year marks the second anniversary of a Sports Program at the Immaculate Conception School set up to train boys the year round in the art of boxing. Each year this organization finances its work by a Sports Night. This year the Immaculate Highchair Kids will box another well known group of boys, Russers' Highchair Kids.

The Sports Night Program is set for Feb. 12, and will start promptly at 8:15 p. m. in the Immaculate auditorium at South Plymouth Ave. and Edinburgh St.

Reserved seats at $1.50, unreserved seats at $1.00, and grammar school children's tickets at 50¢ will be available at the door. The show is equally attended by women as well as by men.

MATCHED IN this exhibition will be Douglas Mattice and George Fontenette with the "World's Underweight Crow" at stake.

The main attraction of the evening will be Richard Hall and Francis Helm fighting for the title of the "World's Smallest Champ." They tip the scale at less than 50 pounds.

In the other eight bouts of the evening, the boys range in weight from 70 to 170 pounds, and are matched as follows: Gerald Belkirsch (Immaculate) vs. Chuck Goble (Russers), Dick Leyer (I. C.) vs. Richard "Tiger" Russers (R.), Robert Stewart (I. C.) vs. Billy Davin (R.), Joseph Alphonse (I. C.) vs. Allen Galletto (I. C.), Eddie Mattice (I. C.) vs. Harry Cusack (R.), Eddie Johnson (I. C.) vs. Johnny Fisher (R.), Raphael Vailot (I. C.) vs. Dick Smith (I. C.).

PURPOSE OF the program is not to make professional boxers of the boys, but strictly to make them real sportsmen and real gentlemen.

This is accomplished through a consistent effort to demand of these boys conduct that is creditable at all times. A boy must have a good report card in conduct to remain in the club.

Every Tuesday and Wednesday night about seventy boys come to the Immaculate school for training. Here under the very capable hands of Thomas Moriarty and Phil Burns, these boys learn the fundamentals of self-defense and sportsmanship.

Referee for the program is the popular Abe Raff, with Red Smith as announcer. Seconds for the IMMACULATE HIGH-CHAIR KIDS will be Howard Palmer and John McMorrow.

Program Committee — Arthur Delman, Frank Spencer, James Rogers.

House Committee — Charles Angione, James Coughlin, Brennan Culhane, Joseph Culhane Sr., James Deegan, John Drew, G. Norbert Hall, Elmer Halloran, Arthur McGee, John McMorrow, Clinton Osborne, Martin Ottenshot, Howard Palmer, Donald Palace, Nelson Parker, William Purcell, William Rankin, Joseph Resch, Frank Spencer, Earl Woodard.

Refreshment Committee — Mr. and Mrs. James Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Driscoll, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fender, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Frenkenberger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Koesterer, Mr. and Mrs. William O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sauters, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilhelm, Walter Jamieson, Miss Terry Woodruff, Mrs. Raymond Mattice, Mrs. Clinton Osborne, Mrs. Howard Palmer.
