

Diocesan Cage Tournament Opens In Rochester Mar. 6

By HOWARD F. MEATH
CVA Program Director
Third Annual Rochester Diocesan Basketball Tournament will be held in Rochester on March 6, 7 and 8.

Teams entered include last year's high school division champs, St. Ann's of Hornell and the grammar school champions of a year ago, St. Monica's of Rochester.

Other parishes represented are: St. Ignatius Loyola of Hornell, St. James of Waverly, St. Hyacinth and St. Francis of Assisi of Auburn; Holy Trinity of Webster, St. Mary's of the Lake, Watkins Glen; Holy Rosary, St. Thomas, St. Boniface, St. Augustine, St. Francis Xavier and St. Stanislaus, all of Rochester. More teams are to be heard from.

A NEW HIGHLIGHT of the tournament this year will be the Bishop's Award Banquet to be held Sunday afternoon following the championship play-offs. His Excellency Bishop Kearney will present the awards to the winning individuals and teams.

This banquet will be open to relatives and friends of local and visiting teams.

Plans for the announced Mardi Gras to be held Feb. 17 by St. Charles Borromeo Rosary Society in the school hall for members and their husbands have been completed according to Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Barnes, chairman.

In a gaily decorated hall giving the New Orleans Mardi Gras atmosphere, a king and queen will be chosen and crowned. Music and square dancing to the music of Evelyn's Five Star Rangers, a floor show and general Mardi Gras festivity are on the program.

Favors will be distributed and luncheon served. Tickets are $1.00 per person to be purchased at the door. Reservations must be made in advance with the band leaders.

John Bodnar 580 Tops HNS League

Auburn—John Bodnar was in great form Sunday as he rolled games of 210, 215 and 155 for a 580 total to lead the bowlers of the St. Aloysius Holy Name Bowling League. But despite Bodnar's fine bowling and Father Haffey's 534, Gonzaga could only muster one point from the team.

Bill Dunn with a 223 game and 560 total led the Santa Clara Champions to their three to one victory over Gonzaga. Four of the Champions were in the 500 bracket besides Dunn, Joe Stapieton had 533; Bal Balboa 521 and Captain John Donnelly 520.

Bud Wilson's 229 and 544 total and Jack Madden's 515 were not enough to win against a fighting Canisius team and Georgetown went down to defeat 1 point to three.

Leo LaVarnway with 216 and 527 total led Canisius into second place when they defeated Georgetown and dropped that team to third position. Nate Navarro helped out with his 500.

Bernard Osterman with 206 and 523 total and Freddy Gilbert with 520 led Notre Dame to a three to one victory over Loyola.

Bernie Aulet with a 201 and 532 total was best for Loyola.

THE BIG THREE: Santa Clara 2886; Gonzaga 2576; Canisius 2485.

THE BIG FIVE: John Bodnar 580; Bill Dunn 540; Bud Wilson 534; Father Haffey 534; Joe Stapieton 533.

Dance Set Tues. At Immaculate

The 12th year of the Immaculate dances will come close Tuesday, Feb. 17. It is customary to suspend all activity during the Lenten season. The only social function held during that time is an annual St. Patrick's Party.

The Shrove Tuesday dance will take the form of a Mardi Gras. Old clothes may be worn and special Sadie-Hawkins numbers will be staged for the high school set.

Joe Nolan and his thirteen piece orchestra will play for dancing from nine o'clock until midnight. A group of tenagers will be in charge of the checking and the refreshments.

Penny Boatman, a local television performer, will be guest vocalist; Betty Cole of Nazareth Academy will sing with the orchestra.

The new dance season will get under way on Easter Monday.

Nazareth Dept. Head To Join In Women's Forum

Miss Elizabeth Fike, head of the Nazareth College department of secretarial science and economics, will participate in the second of a series of Women's Community Forums at the Chamber of Commerce Monday, Feb. 16, at 8 p.m. She will discuss "Responsibility of Women for Education."

Scouters' Rally On Feb. 22 To Feature Talk By Bishop

All Catholic scouters, leaders, den mothers, patrol leaders, den chiefs and friends, the Mother Superior of each Rochester parochial school and non-Catholic leaders in the community, are invited to a Catholic Scouters' Rally, Sunday, Feb. 22 according to the committee in charge.

The program to be highlighted by an address by His Excellency Bishop Kearney, will begin at 3 p.m. in Columbus Civic Center ballroom.

Pelican awards will be made and the Bishop's Lay Committee on Catholic Scouting will report progress made during the year.

Heading the Rally committee is Paul Von Bacho.

Others working out plans for the rally are: Charles Angione, ceremonial; Perry Finks, attendance; Clarence W. Deckman, awards; Theodore J. Houck, song leader; Edwin B. Kinsky, organist; Richard G. Thiele, publicity.

Edward M. Lorscheider is chairman of the Bishop's Lay Committee on Catholic Scouting for the Oretiana Council.

First Win Over Madison Sought By Aquinas Five

Aquinas basketball five will renew an old rivalry in their game with Madison High of the Interscholastic League Friday at the Sports Arena.

Aquinas has never beaten Madison in basketball. Their closest game was in 1945 when Madison won by one point in an overtime game.

Both teams are "up" for the game and both will be at full strength. A capacity house is expected because advance sale of tickets has been good.

GAME STARTS at 8:30 p.m. with a Junior Varsity game at 7:00 p.m. Aquinas boys are excited and spirits are high. Both teams consider this to be "THE" game of the year.

Starting against Aquinas for Madison will be two of the highest scorers in the city league. Ted Usher leads the league at Stu Hook is third high.

They will be pitted against Ron Mack who has a 24 point per game average, and Greg Britz who is second with 15 points per game.

Also starting for Aquinas will be Fred Wagner, a 6'4" junior who is vastly improved, and Danny O'Brien who has been playing a terrific floor game.

O'Brien is the playmaker of the team. Completing the starting five will be Jack Burns or Chuck Thomas.

Travel Films Set
The motion picture program at Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 15, will take its audience from the Pan-American Highway to India, the land of ancient wonder. The film will be shown at 2:30 p.m. and again at 3:30 p.m. to which the public is invited.
