

St. Alphonsus Group To Make Centennial Plans

Auburn—An initial meeting to organize committees and plans for the centennial celebration of the founding of St. Alphonsus Parish, Auburn, was held Sunday, Feb. 8 in the school auditorium. The Rev. Frederick G. Straub, pastor, acting as temporary chairman, recounted highlights of the early days of the parish.

AT THE organization meeting which followed, the president of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and Rosary Society, the oldest church group, Mrs. Charles E. Hutson was named general chairman of the celebration.

Working with the chairman will be Miss Marion Berry, president pro-tem of the Catholic Action League; Mrs. Francis Tenity, vice-president of the Mothers Club and Robert R. Schneider, president of the Holy Name.

It was agreed that the heads of each society will select five members to form a general committee which will convene Sunday, Feb. 15 at 4 p.m. in the auditorium.

The committee has issued a plea for old pictures dealing with early days in the parish. They are particularly eager to locate one of the first church which was on Wall Street in Auburn.

Geneva DCCW Saturday Group Hears Fr. Loughlin

Geneva—Fifty-five members of Geneva Deanery, National Council of Catholic Women, attended the "First Saturday" luncheon of the organization Saturday in Hotel Seneca.

The Rev. John V. Loughlin, St. Francis de Sales Church, was guest speaker. Discussing the life of Mary, the Mother of Christ, he emphasized the great love which she has shown for all peoples down through the ages.

"The pride and joy which she felt for her Divine Son, were equalled only by the great sorrow which pierced her heart," he said. "Her steadfastness in her sorrows should always be an example to us in our own times of difficulty and stress."

"WE MUST always remember," he continued, "that her love for us is as endless as our devotion to her and confidence in her must always be."

Mrs. Arthur T. McAvoy, Geneva, Diocesan president of NCCW was present. A guest of honor was Mrs. Thomas A. Kane, first president of Geneva Deanery.

New officers of the Deanery are: Mrs. Louis J. Fowler, Penn Yan, president; Mrs. William Noonan, Newark, vice-president; Mrs. Marsden Baker, Geneva, secretary; Miss Edith Chacchia, Geneva, treasurer.

The Rev. Francis Waterstraat, Penn Yan, moderator of the organization, spoke briefly.

Experienced Auctioneer Listed For St. Mary Sale

Auburn—Mrs. Frederick L. Keesee, chairman of the Auction Sale sponsored tomorrow, Saturday, Feb. 14, by the Rosary and Altar Society of St. Mary's Church, has made public the final committee lists.

The sale will be held in the former Smith and Pearson Plumbing Shop on Exchange Street from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m.

AUCTIONEERS, all Holy Name men of St. Mary's Church and well known Auburnians who will wield the gavel during the sale are: Frederick J. Welch, chairman; George F. Train, George Shannon, Fred L. Armstrong, James Quill, John F. Welch, John Walsh, Carroll Caffrey, Frederick Farrell, Avery J. Neagle, and Joseph Curtin.

One of these, Mr. Train, acquired considerable reputation as an auctioneer during his years as City Manager of Auburn when he disposed at public sale of various parcels of city real estate and other property valued at one half million dollars, sale of which was delegated to him by the City.

Best known of the city property disposed of by Mr. Train in his eight year tenure of office was the former Case mansion which was sold at auction to the Carmelite Fathers of New York and which is now known as Whitefriars. Mr. Train is now acting postmaster.

Miss Mary Falvey, president of the Rosary and Altar Society, has named the following to the Arrangements Committee: Mrs. Edgar Hutchings, Mrs. Joseph Kieran, Mrs. William Ganey and Mrs. Harry Nation.

Reports were heard from Mrs. John Reoit, January Card Party chairman; Miss Bernadine Cox, February Dinner chairman; Mrs. John F. Foster, seminary fund chairman; and Miss Ann McDonald, Council of Social Agencies representative.
