

Convert Guild Meetings Move To Columbus Center

Future meetings of the Convert Guild will be held at the Columbus Civic Center, 50 Chestnut Street, the Rev. Joseph L. Hogan, S.T.D., Guild Director announced today.

Forty Hours

Devotions of the Forty Hours will be conducted in the following churches of the Diocese of Rochester:

Sunday, Feb. 22 — St. Andrew's Seminary, Rochester; Holy Family, Auburn.

The Convert Guild was organized last May by Father Hogan to aid recent converts to the faith to adjust themselves to the Catholic way of life, to help them feel at home in the Church, and to further their instruction in the truths of Catholicism.

Guild meetings are held on the first Monday of each month (September through June) and are open to all converts and their friends. The program includes Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, a lecture followed by a period of informal discussion, and a social program. The meetings begin promptly at 9 p.m. The topics planned for the coming meetings are:

March 2—A lecture on "Music in Catholic Liturgy" by the Rev. Charles McCarthy, Professor of Sacred Music at St. Bernard's Seminary.

April 6—Dialogue Discussion—"The Sacrament of Holy Orders" conducted by the Rev. Francis Marks, Ph.D. of the faculty of St. Andrew's Seminary.

May 4—A lecture "Why Catholicism?" by Very Rev. John Murphy, U.S.B. President of St. John Fisher College.

June 1—Dialogue Discussion on "The Sacrament of Matrimony" conducted by Father Hogan, Guild Director.

All converts who may be interested in joining this group are asked to contact Father Hogan at St. Andrew's Seminary, 1150 Buffalo Road, Rochester 11, N. Y.
