

Total Assets Pass $380,000 In 4 Parish Credit Unions

Four Rochester parish credit unions as of December 31, 1952, had total assets of over $380,000 according to a report of Joseph H. Gervais, chairman of the credit union committee of Rochester Branch, Catholic Central Verlen of America.

Third Order of Mt. Carmel

These credit unions are in St. Andrew's, Holy Family, Our Lady of Perpetual Help and St. Peter and Paul's parishes. Chairman Gervais' report further shows that outstanding loans to members of the credit unions total $146,804; that the credit unions owned $166,470 of United States government bonds and that the total deposits of members for the purchase of shares of the credit unions was $380,819, and that the credit unions in 1952 loaned to members $189,987.

THE DIVIDEND paid on shares varied from 1 1/2% to 3%. All four credit unions were organized as a direct result of the efforts of the Catholic Central Verlen, the purpose being to make available to members of the parish a fund from which small loans for productive and provident purposes might be made at a reasonable rate of interest.

The growth of these credit unions since 1937 when the first one was organized, indicates that they fill a real need and render a valuable service to the members of the parishes in which they exist, Gervais said.

In his report Gervais stated that although none of these credit unions has ever taken security other than a co-maker, not one loan has as yet been charged off as being uncollectible. This he says is a tribute to the judgment of the committees which pass on applications for loans.

"A TERTIARY whose life is not characterized by this spirit of submission to all his legitimate superiors is certainly not following his great model, Mary, whose obedient reply of 'Be it done unto me according to Thy Word,' won for her all the graces that were to adorn the Queen of Heaven."
