Divorce Topic Scheduled In DCCW Marriage Series

Auburn — The Rev. Andrew W. Teuschel, assistant pastor of St. Alphonsus Church, Auburn, will speak on "Impediments, Annulments, Divorce" at the second session of the Auburn Marriage Preparation Course Monday, March 2, in the Knights of Columbus Home.

The series sponsored by Auburn Deanery, Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, is open to engaged and married persons.

IN A BROCHURE prepared for distribution throughout the deanery the course is explained as follows. It is designed especially for the engaged man and woman who are planning a Catholic marriage.

It is strongly urged, therefore, that both attend the lectures together, but when this is impossible, either is most welcome to attend. While not specifically intended for married people, the course is open to those married people who may wish to attend, either individually or in couples.

"Engaged couples should remember that this course is not intended to supplant but rather to supplement the required marriage instructions given by the pastor," the brochure states.

House on Monday and will continue for 4 Mondays. Rev. John P. Norris of St. Charles Borromeo Parish, speaker, confers with Dolores Wilson, Auburn, and Edward Maroney, Syracuse who will be wed in Holy Family Church, Auburn, April 25. At right is Mrs. Frank L. Doyle, course chairman.

Geneva KC Honor Former Chaplain

Geneva — First international night dinner ever to be held in the Knights of Columbus Home was the "Italian Night Dinner" on Monday, Feb. 16.

The dinner and program attracted a record-breaking attendance, according to Joseph Yannotti, general chairman.

The Rev. Father Innocent of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Capuchin Seminary, Lochland Rd., was guest speaker. He outlined the extensive K. of C. program carried on throughout the country, the patriotism of the members and cooperation in civic and parish activities.

The Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, new pastor of St. Stephen's, and the Rev. Edward K. Ball, pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church, spoke briefly. The Rev. Donald Lux also addressed the membership.

Anthony Cecere was master of ceremonies for the dinner.

FORMER CHAPLAIN of the Knight of Columbus, the Rev. Robert H. Fennessy, who was recently transferred from St. Stephen's parish to be pastor at Mount Morris, was honored by the Council. He received a purse as a gift from the members.

Assisting the chairman on the dinner committee were Frank Caravita, Paul Colelli, Frank Christiano, Russell Gaglianese, Frank Balistreri, Armand Capozzi, William Zeoli, Anthony Yanotti, Carmen Ilacqua, Patrick Malcuria, Michael Acquilano, Joseph Galasso and Nick Cavallaro, and Frank Mantell.

Geneva Weddings

Geneva — Miss Margaret Dorcene Laquitara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Laquitara, Geneva RD. 3, and Peter Michael Zeoli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Zeoli, 177 Genesee St., were married Saturday, Feb. 14 in St. Francis de Sales Church.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Michael Hogan.

Mrs. Rose Ciancaglini, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, Miss Ruth Venteres, maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Elsie Venteres, Genevieve Lidestri, Mary Ann Catalino, niece of the bridegroom, and Patti Ann Farlo, niece of the bride. Linda Cardinale, a niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and William Lasser, nephew of the bride was ring bearer.

Ushers were Anthony Rago, Sam Zeoli, brother of the bridegroom, Joseph Laquitara, brother of the bride, and Anthony Farlo, Jr., nephew of the bride.

Dinner and reception was held at Club 96.

After a trip to New Orleans and Miami, Fla., the couple will live at 36 N. Exchange St.

Michalski Post To Hold Bowling Tourney March 1

Melvin Michalski Post 1226, American Legion will hold its regular monthly meeting for February on Thursday, Feb. 26 at 8:15 p.m. sharp in the Post Hall on Hudson Avenue.

On Sunday, March 1 the Post will hold its annual bowling tournament of Seneca Lanes Alleys starting at 1:00 p.m. According to co-chairmen, William Maslanka and Richard Felerski a few openings are still available.

'Lakers' Parish Cagers To Wind Up League Schedule

Geneva — The Catholic Grammar School basketball league, known in this vicinity as the "Lakers League" will complete its schedule of games here Sunday, March 1 at DeSales High School gym. This year the Lakers League consisted of the following four teams, St. Mary's of Waterloo, St. Stephen's and St. Francis of Geneva, and the Junior High School team from The Capuchins Seminary also located here in Geneva.

Games booked for Sunday, March 1 at the DeSales gym will find the Capuchins playing St. Francis in the first part of the doubleheader at 7 p.m. and the St. Mary's Saints of Waterloo playing the league leading St. Stephen's team in the final game. If St. Mary's of Waterloo can defeat St. Stephen's in this last game, these two teams will be tied for first place, making a playoff game necessary on a neutral court.

PLANS MADE earlier in the season call for a foul shooting contest to be held prior to the games, this date. The winner of the free throw contest will be awarded the Lakers League Championship Free Throw Trophy, donated by Frank Clarke, one of the layman officials of the Lakers League, and the player so winning will keep permanent possession of the Trophy. The Lakers All Stars team will also be announced this same date, and players making the All Star Lakers League team will be awarded Lakers League All Star Emblems. The 20 inch high, Lakers League Trophy will be awarded to the team winning the League race.

Boys who will try for the Lakers League Trophy in the Foul Shooting Contest are: Tom Marino, Paul Helstrom and Walt Bruzda of St. Francis; Tom Lynch, Sonny DeCiccio and Tom Millerd of St. Mary's of Waterloo: Roger Leonard, Frank Danza and Ed Caslander of the Capuchin Junior School and probably Ron Snyder, Jim McDermott and John Carroll of St. Stephen's.

Both St. Stephen's of Geneva and St. Mary's of Waterloo have entered the CYA Tournament to be held in Rochester, March 7 and 8.

League officials hope that next year the League will be able to add 2 or 4 more vicinity Catholic teams to their Lakers League, thus making a 6 or 8 team loop. St. John's of Clyde and St. Francis of Auburn are two teams expected to enter the League race next year.

Spencerport Scouts Collect 7 Tons Paper

New Boy Scout Troop in Spencerport will be known as Troop No. 165. That number was recently assigned to it by the Ontiana Council of Boy Scouts of America. Plans are now being made for the acceptance of the charter, in the near future, by the Holy Name Society of St. John's Church.

The recent paper drive undertaken by the troop was "a huge success," thanks to the generosity of the local residents. Seven tons of paper were collected and the money raised will be used for needed supplies and camping equipment.

The troop committee is making arrangements for a weekend of camping May 8, 9, 10. Further details will be announced.

Thomas Farrell To Retire As Edwards Buyer

With 41 years of experience behind him in the merchandising business, Thomas M. Farrell, 264 Sherwood Ave., is planning to retire.

Mr. Farrell is supervising buyer for the Rochester store of E. W. Edwards and Son Company which post he reached after an humble beginning in Ireland.

In September, 1895, Farrell began work for I. Mulligan and Son, Castlepollard, County Westmeath, Ireland, under an ancient apprentice system which kept him there four years without pay.

He looks to retirement after long and varied experience in house furnishings merchandising. He is today recognized as an authority on stock buying and merchandising methods. After his apprenticeship, Farrell made connections with the Junior Army and Navy Stores of Dublin, Ireland.

Opportunities in America brought him here in 1902. His first position was with Burke, FitzSimmons, Hone and Company of Rochester where he served as a salesman. At the end of the first year he joined Sibley, Lindsay and Curr Company as assistant buyer.

In 1909 he was offered the post of manager of the combined house furnishings and china departments of the Edwards store. Later the departments were divided and he became manager and buyer of the house furnishings and toys unit. Still later he was advertising manager until the store's rapid growth necessitated full time in house wares and toys.

Medical Film Shown To Corning DCCW

Corning — A talk by Dr. Fred E. Gorman, illustrated by a medical film, was the feature of the regular monthly meeting of Corning Deanery, National Council of Catholic Women, held recently at St. Patrick's hall.

Chairman for the program was Mrs. Loren Bauman, chairman of the Family Life committee. Mrs. Bauman was assisted by Mesdames Charles Golibet, Charles Parker, William McCarthy and Joseph Daley.

LeMoyne Lenten Lectures Open In Auburn March 8

Auburn—The second "Annual Lenten Lecture Series," sponsored by the Auburn LeMoyne Club will be held this year at Lyceum Hall, St. Mary's Church, Auburn, on Sundays at 4:00 p.m. from March 8 through March 29.

As before the talks will be given by Jesuit members of the LeMoyne College faculty. Any proceeds will be placed in a fund for financial aid to needy Auburn students.

James Pitcher is general chairman assisted by Paul Morris, tickets; Paul Fiore, publicity; "Lindy" Vendeti, arrangements. A ticket for the series of four lectures is one dollar; individual talks fifty cents, children under eighteen will be admitted without charge. Schedule of talks follows:

Sunday, March 8 — "Popular Front, Unpopular Spain: Why?" Aloysius J. Owen, S.J., Chairman, department of Industrial Relations;

Sunday, March 15 — "Hiss vs. Chambers; Believing a Witness" Robert A. Mitchell, S.J., department of Philosophy;

Sunday, March 22—"No Salvation Outside the Church;" It's Meaning. Thomas Scott, S.J., department of Theology;

Sunday, March 29—God's Law; The Only Guide for Man's Conduct. John Ortner, S.J., department of Philosophy.

Caecilians Heard At St. Ann's Home

The Caecilians, a High-school Choral society of St. Monica parish, entertained guests of St. Ann's Home in an appreciated pre-Lenten program of music.

Among numbers that pleased were Mozart's "Lullaby" and "You'll Never Walk Alone" by Rodger - Hammerstein. Marie Sidoti, President of the Caecilians, was heard as soloist in "Summertime" from Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess," and Gounod's "Ave Maria" was beautifully sung by Margaret Halloran.

Carol Joyce Lee, vice-president, accompanied the group and was acclaimed in two piano solos, Clair d'Lune by Debussy and Deep Purple. The program closed with a special three-part arrangement of "America the Beautiful."

Holy Apostles Group Lists Talk By Nun

Sister St. Mark of the School of the Holy Childhood will be guest speaker at the Rosary Society meeting at Holy Apostles School Auditorium, Wednesday evening, March 4 after the Lenten services.

Mrs. Ray Nary, president, requests all members to be present. Friends are invited.

Rummage Sale Listed By Aquinas Mothers

Mothers' Club of Aquinas Institute will conduct a rummage sale on March 4 and 5 at 178 West Main St.

The store will be open on March 3 to receive the donations of clothes or kitchen utensils. Mrs. John Kirby is general chairman assisted by Mrs. Patrick Farrell.

Gregorian Chant On New Records

St. Benedict, Ore. — (NC) — Seminarians at Mount Angel Abbey are singing — not for their supper — but for a new seminary building.

The Gregorian Choir of this Benedictine monastery has recorded 15 chants on a long-play record. Part of the royalties will go toward a much-needed new building.

Day's Devotion Program Outlined By Auburn Group

Auburn — Plans are rapidly going forward for the Day of Recollection scheduled for the women of St. Alphonsus Church, Auburn, on Sunday, March 8. In an attractively printed invitation which was distributed to the women of the parish, plans were outlined as follows:

"The Day of Recollection will open with Mass and Holy Communion at 9 o'clock and close with Benediction at 4 p.m. You will be privileged to hear spiritual talks by the Rev. Joachim M. Snyder, O. Carm., who will conduct the Day and lead prayers in common."

THE DAY'S program follows: 9 a.m. Mass and Holy Communion; 10 a.m. Breakfast and opening conference in School Hall; 11 a.m. Library facilities for Spiritual Reading or attendance at High Mass; 12 p.m. Conference in church; 12:45 p.m. Lunch in school, tape recorded reading by Father Snyder; 1:30 p.m. Conference in church; meditation; 2:30 p.m. Rosary, Litany of Blessed Virgin Mary; 3:15 p.m. Conference; 4 p.m. Benediction.

Mrs. Thomas P. Tierney, assisted by a large committee composed of representatives of the various parish societies for women, is general chairman of the day's activities.

The Rev. Robert A. Meng, assistant pastor of St. Alphonsus, is moderator of the Catholic Action League sponsoring the project.

St. Charles Rosary Unit Sets Communion

Members of St. Charles Borromeo Rosary Society will attend Corporate Communion Sunday, March 1, at the 8 a.m. Mass. The Society will meet on Tuesday, March 3, in the school hall following recitation of the Rosary in the church at 7:45 p.m.

After the business session, the Rev. Henry Atwell, assistant pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church, Greece, will present his "Dramatization of the Mass."

Plans will be discussed for the Cana Conference to be held in the church in April for parish members. At the last meeting plans were made for the organization of study clubs to meet weekly during Lent.

Mrs. Virginia Blind, president, urges all members to keep in mind the Rummage Sale to be conducted on May 28 and 29 and to start saving articles for this event.

Fr. Shoniker Cited For Library Work

Two Western Pennsylvania librarians are listed as associate editors of the 1953 Catholic Booklist published by the Catholic Library Association for National Catholic Book Week Feb. 22-28.

Rev. Fintan R. Shoniker, O.S.B., director of libraries at St. Vincent College, Latrobe, prepared the annotated selections of current Catholic biographies, and Sister Melania Grace, librarian of Seton Hill College, Greensburg, was responsible for the section on Catholic bibliography.

Issued annually since 1942 by the national library group, both Father Shoniker and Sister Melania have been associated with this standard recommended work for ten years.

Red Cross Drive To Open Friday

The Rochester Chapter, American Red Cross, will stage a Hollywood preview as its Rally for all volunteer Fund Campaign workers in the Eastman Theater on Friday, Feb. 27, at 8:15 p.m.

The picture, "Tonight We Sing," will be the official opening of the Rochester Chapter's Fund Campaign, which will be conducted from Feb. 28 through Mar. 17.

"Tonight We Sing" is the story of the impresario, Feodor Chaliapin, who brought to America the talent of the foremost musicians, singers, and dancers, the magic of fine opera, concert and ballet.

Following the Friday night rally, more than 6,000 volunteer workers will be on the march in the city of Rochester and Monroe County, soliciting the $571,000 campaign goal.
