

U. S. Bishops' Relief Fund For War Victims

Catholics Seek $5,000,000 Aid Fund

'Dead Men Tell No Tales'
Ill Fate Overtakes All Who Aided Torture, Trial Of Cardinal Mindszenty

By DR. BELA FABIAN
Dr. Fabian, veteran Hungarian Jewish leader, and former president (1928) of the Hungarian Independent Democratic party, tells here the strange and sinister story of the fate that befell all those who had any part in the torture and mock trial of Cardinal Mindszenty.

CARDINAL MINDSZENTY
'Devil servants of an evil power doomed themselves.'

trying to console her: "maybe the dead Cardinal will serve his country and the world better than the living Cardinal."
In the years before his arrest, the Cardinal had been tormented by the thought that those who resisted communism were being tortured to death by the thousand in the depths of prisons, while the world wished to remain deaf and blind to this horror.

Beautiful arrangements for Homes, Hospitals, or Funerals
Perry's Flower Shop Inc., 411 Chitt Ave., GE. 9180; Hotel Seneca Arcade, HA. 2919.—Adv.

THE CATHOLIC Courier Journal OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF THE ROCHESTER DIOCESE

64th Year ROCHESTER, N. Y., FRIDAY, MARCH 13, 1953 16 Pages

Parish Schools In Dansville To Combine

Dansville — Beginning of a new single central Catholic school in September following merger of Dansville's two parochial schools planned with the endorsement of His Excellency Bishop Kearney will take place in September.

Priest Assigned To Cathedral

The Diocesan Chancery has announced the following clergy appointment made this week by His Excellency Bishop Kearney: The Rev. Michael Hogan has been transferred from assistant pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church, Geneva, to assistant pastor of Sacred Heart Cathedral, Rochester.

Rosary Crusade Draws 100,000

Malaga, Spain.—(RNS)—Photo shows part of the huge crowd, estimated at more than 100,000, that gathered here for ceremonies climaxing the first Family Rosary Crusade on the European continent.

China-Ousted Nuns

'God Took Care Of Us In Prison'

Hong Kong.—(NC)—Two nuns who were expelled recently from communist China after spending a year and a half in a Nanking jail are convinced that they experienced God's special care while in prison.
They are Mother St. Aubert of the Franciscan Missionaries of Mary, who had been arrested with five other nuns at Nanking in April, 1951, accused of "killing" children in a foundling home.

Ministers Stop St. Patrick's Dance In Public School

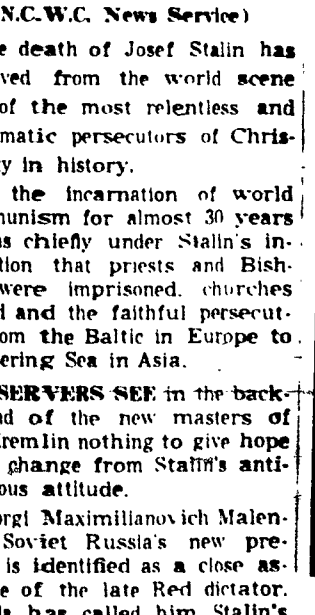

Brewster, N. Y.—(NC)—Confronted with a protest by the Brewster Ministerial Association, the local school board has withdrawn its previously granted permission to hold a St. Patrick's Day entertainment in the Brewster High School auditorium, the only hall in town.

Holy Father Regains Health

Vatican City.—(NC)—The steady return to health by His Holiness Pope Pius XII is seen in a new announcement here. It was stated that the Pontiff will appear on St. Peter's balcony on Sunday afternoon March 22, to bless the national congress of small farmers due to convene in Rome at that time.

Atheist Stalin Persecuted Church Almost 30 Years

(N.C.W.C. News Service)
The death of Josef Stalin has removed from the world scene one of the most relentless and systematic persecutors of Christianity in history.
As the incarnation of world communism for almost 30 years it was chiefly under Stalin's inspiration that priests and Bishops were imprisoned, churches closed and the faithful persecuted from the Baltic in Europe to the Bering Sea in Asia.

JOSEF STALIN

C-J Drive Ahead Of Last Year

Partial reports in the current COURIER-JOURNAL circulation drive reveal that 32 parishes have adopted 100 per cent coverage of their families, according to Elmer Grapensteter, circulation manager of the diocesan weekly.

THE FOLLOWING parishes have renewed 100 per cent coverage: St. Joseph, Weedsport; St. Columba, Caledonia and St. Patrick, Mumford; St. Patrick, Aurora and St. Michael, Union Springs; St. Joseph, Livonia; St. Patrick, Moravia and St. Ann, Owasco; St. Catherine, Addison; St. Helen, Rochester; St. Leo, Hilton; St. Mary, Bath; St. Patrick, Macedon.

PARISHES subscribing for full coverage of their families for the first time include: St. Peter and Paul, Rochester; St. Patrick, Rochester; Immaculate Conception, Rochester; St. John the Evangelist (Humboldt St.) Rochester; Most Precious Blood, Rochester; St. Michael's, Newark; St. Patrick's, Victor; St. Januarius, Naples; and St. James, Waverly. Our Lady of Good Counsel, Rochester; St. Michael, Rochester; St. Philip, Rochester; St. Mary of the Lake, Watkins Glen; St. Mary, Elmira and Immaculate Conception, Ithaca.

War Victims Collection Set Sunday In Churches

Fifteen thousand Catholic parishes throughout the United States will participate this Sunday in the annual appeal for the Bishops' Relief Fund for War Victims.

NATIONAL GOAL of the 1953 Bishops' Fund for Victims of War is $5,000,000. It will be used exclusively to carry on the worldwide services of the two overseas relief agencies of the American Catholic Bishops — the Bishops' Welfare and Emergency Relief Committee and the War Relief Services, National Catholic Welfare Conference.

AMERICAN CATHOLICS have played a leading role in helping warstricken Korean civilians during the period from Oct. 1 to Dec. 31 last year. 1,887,216 pounds of clothing, foodstuffs and medicals valued at $2,566,913 were shipped directly to Korea by War Relief Services.

ROME EMPLOYS Indult For Evening Mass
Rome.—(NC)—Evening Masses were celebrated in seven designated churches here Sunday as Rome itself took advantage of the recent Papal indult, "Christus Dominus," permitting Bishops to authorize such Masses in any part of the world.

JAPANESE PRINCE To Visit Vatican
Tokyo.—(NC)—Japanese Crown Prince Akihito will pay a formal visit to the Vatican during a five-day stay in Rome toward the end of July. It was announced here.

Stalin frequently declared himself an atheist. There are no reports that he had a change of heart as his grim end approached. The official bulletin announcing the Soviet dictator's fatal illness and death made no reference to God, asked no prayers for his welfare or his soul.

Stalin's later statements indicate that he had lost all belief in his death stated: "In these sorrowful days all the peoples of our country are rallying ever closer in a great fraternal family under the tested leadership of the Communist Party created and reared by Lenin and Stalin."