Fathers Given Expert Advice

Philadelphia (RNS) — Fathers were offered a lot of advice by speakers at the 21st annual meeting here of the National Catholic Family Life Conference...

The experts agreed that father's role is a very important and demanding one. An Dr. William D. Wilkins of New York University's School of Education put it: "Parenthood isn't a picnic. Dad may work from sun to sun, but as a father he's never done."

'Irish and Catholic Power' New Blanshard Theme

Bedford Center, Vt. (RNS) — Author Paul Blanshard said at his home near here that he is working on a new book to be entitled "The Irish and Catholic Power." He said he collected material for the book during his year's stay abroad.

Mr. Blanshard, who recently returned to this country, said the book will analyze the history of Church-State relations in Ireland. It will be his third volume dealing with the Roman Catholic Church. The first two, "American Freedom and Catholic Power" and "Communism, Democracy and Catholic Power," evoked strong criticism from Catholics.

Priest Hung By Thumbs, Beat Before Red Ouster

Hong Kong (NC) — "I am afraid I haven't much of a story, Father. They made up some accusations and expelled me. That's about all." Quiet, soft-spoken Father Joris De Boer, Bethlehemite Missionary who had just reached here after being ousted by the Chinese Reds from the silent cold of Taitshar, Manchuria, was apparently just another typical victim of the communist war on religion.

Toronto Cardinal Hits 'Printed Filth'

Toronto (RNS) — James Cardinal McGuigan, Archbishop of Toronto, has called for a cleanup of "printed filth" now circulating in Canada. "Any right-minded person must admit," the Cardinal said "that the literature among us are being victimized by a despicable exploitation for the selfish profit of certain parasites who have succeeded in becoming openly established, more or less with public approval or at least with a woeful lack of public disapproval."

MR. BLANSARD also said that he will continue to make an issue over the status of Archbishop Gerald P. O'Hara, Papal Nuncio to Ireland. Recently Mr. Blanshard petitioned the State Department to revoke the U. S. citizenship of Archbishop O'Hara, who is bishop of the Savannah-Atlanta diocese.

Home For Aged Plans Beauty Parlor

Boston (RNS) — A feature in a new home for elderly persons which Archbishop Richard J. Cushing of Boston is establishing will be a beauty parlor. "It will make the elderly persons feel young," the Archbishop said in announcing the purchase by the archdiocese of the former Lafayette Hotel in Boston's Back Bay.

"I WAS STRIPPED of everything and locked out of my house. I was forced to go with a stick as a staff and a bag over my shoulder begging through the town. The people were most generous, for in one round, I was given enough to last for a month. They wouldn't let me talk to the Catholics but when I went begging they could talk to me and they were most loyal and helpful."

Sodalities Launch Modest Dress Drive

Albuquerque, N. M. (RNS) — More than 500 members of the Catholic School Sodality Society here have asked Albuquerque clothing merchants to make available more modest and decent wearing apparel, particularly formal, to the general public.
