

St. Thomas Court Basketball Team Wins

Seneca Falls — Members of St. Thomas Parish, Irondequoit, basketball team were guests of St. Patrick's five, here in Seneca Falls on St. Patrick's Day.

Festivities opened with a game in which the St. Thomas cagers noosed out St. Patrick's by a score of 34 to 32, the extra two points being scored in the overtime period.

A supper and dance followed the game. The meal was served by the Panthers' cheerleaders under the direction of Miss Patricia Souhan.

Chaperones for the party were John Sinicropi, and the Misses Gloria Didio, Marie Manzari and Anna Marie Lilla. Rev. Thomas C. Kane, director of the athletic program, planned the event.

THE GAME was played in St. Patrick's gymnasium, which has been alive with activity throughout the entire winter season. Every afternoon and evening of the week finds some group playing basketball or handball or some other game.

In the course of the week Father Kane has worked out a schedule so that each group has an appointed time to use the gym. St. Patrick's pupils have basketball after school each day and the students from Mynderse Academy have the use of the gym several nights during the week.

Other evenings are set aside for the adults who also play basketball and other games. Since the gym was built, new baskets have been set in place and a bumper pad placed under the basket to prevent injury of the players.

During January's benefit game was played between the Rochester Dukes and the Seneca Falls Jets, the proceeds of which will be used for the purchase of a score clock.

Enthusiasm runs high for the

Aquinas Grads Win College Posts

Windsor, Ontario, Canada... Three students from the Rochester area, all Aquinas Institute graduates, won offices in the All-Opponent team chosen by members of St. Bonaventure University's varsity basketball squad.

Other selections to the team included Niagara University's Larry Costello, Duquesne's Dick Ricketts, and Jim Mooney of Villanova.

Arizin was picked as the outstanding player by the Bonnie players and Western Kentucky as the best team. Two games, the Quantic Marine contest and the second overtime tussle with Canisius, tied as the most thrilling of the season according to the poll conducted by the Bona Venture campus newspaper.

Mark C. Wiant, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wiant, 326 Chestnut Ridge Rd., Churchville, a junior, vice-president of the Students Administrative Council.

Robert G. Bamann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Bamann, 2674 St. Paul Blvd., Rochester, a junior, senior class representative.

Charles A. Schiano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Schiano, 229 Adams St., Rochester, a freshman, sophomore class representative.

Dunn's 617 Tops Auburn League

Auburn—Bill Dunn was in his late season form, Sunday, as he reeled off games of 191, 202 and 224 for a 617 total to lead the bowlers of the St. Aloysius Holy Name Bowling League.

Dunn knew Santa Clara had a tough opponent and so he rolled accordingly to lead the Champions to a three to one victory over as hard-fighting Gonzaga team. Captain John Donnelly bowled very consistently varying only eight pins between his low game of 182 and his high game of 190 for a 588 total. H. Champ Jones had 545 and Joe Stapleton 514 to enable Santa Clara to set a new high three team total of 2701.

Ray Sullivan started with a bang rolling 244 game to practically snare Gonzaga's lone point single-handed. Ray finished with a 569 total just 11 pins more than the last time he was on his favorite alley. Father Haffey's 529 and Charlie Rice's 170 game went for naught.

Jack Madden started off with the high single of the day 246 and followed it with 176 and 188 for a 612 total to lead Georgetown to a four to nothing victory over Canisius. Madden inspired Vern Pinkney to a 221 game which helped him total 625. Bud Wilson still trying to master the change of pace ball instead of his high fast one, came through with 509 despite a low game.

Nat Navarro's 526 and Paul J. Graney's 513 were best for Canisius.

Captain Bill Bishop's change of line-up has benefited Loyola the last two weeks. They have taken 7 out of 9 points to raise from the cellar to a tie for fourth place. Bill Costello with 540 and Bill Bishop with 507 led the Loyola team to a 4 to nothing victory over Notre Dame and dumped Cirillo with 515 tried hard. Their team lost the first game by 9 points and the last one by two.

Notre Dame came close as Bernard Costerman with 527 and Joe that team into last place.

THE BIG THREE: Santa Clara 2701, Gonzaga 2594, Georgetown 2507.

THE BIG FIVE: Bill Dunn 617, Jack Madden 612, Ray Sullivan 569, John Donnelly 558, H. Champ Jones 545.

Notre Dame Club To Name Officer Staff

Members of the Notre Dame Club will hold a regular monthly business session at the Notre Dame Retreat House, 246 Alexander St., on Monday evening, March 30.
