Belgrade — (RNS) — A documentary film depicting His Eminence Aloysius Cardinal Stepinac as "the traitor cardinal" has been completed in Zagreb, according to Politika, Belgrade daily.

"The new film is intended to give the lie to the Vatican's attempts to present Stepinac as a martyr of the Tito regime," Politika said.

"THE COMMUNIST paper claimed the film shows that the Catholic Church in Croatia, and its press, 'were placed entirely at the service of fascism during the war.'"

"Spectators will be convinced without difficulty," Politika said, "that in the era of the independent Croat State there were few meetings of these assassins which Stepinac did not attend."

In regard to alleged forced conversions of Serbian Orthodox followers and the killing of those who refused to be converted, the film commentator was quoted as stating of the Zagreb archbishop: "His Cardinal's purple is bathed in the blood of the people."

What happens when Zeus, dissatisfied with the quality of music on Mount Olympus, announces a contest to select the Mayor of Music? What complications develop when Terpsichore, Erato and Pan intervene to wrangle the selection of their favorite candidate?

ANSWERS ARE currently being worked out at rehearsals of "PAN-demonium," Nazareth College S. R. O. production to be offered May 1 and 2 in the college auditorium, 425 East Ave. S. R. O. Standing Room Only!

"PAN-demonium" was written and is being directed by Eileen Flanagan, junior speech major. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter V. Flanagan, 178 Inglewood Dr., she is a graduate of Nazareth Academy, and a member of St. Augustine's parish.

LAST MONTH she was elected second vice-president of the Lake

NEW And Now

Cost of "Detective Story", produced by the Roff Guild of St. John Fisher College, Rochester.

St. John Fisher's Roff Guild is now presenting Sidney Kingsley's "Detective Story" in a central stage setting at the men's college in Rochester.

Kingsley's shocking delineation of the detective who "played God", who created a set of ethics without charity or mercy, is in our estimation one of the greatest examples of true tragedy on the American stage.

PLAYED AGAINST a courtroom setting, where we see the various and living beings of the human comedy, there is that quality to "Detective Story" that makes it of our own day, yet it holds the emotional elements that make it part of all time.

Father Houde Directs 'Detective Story' At St. John Fisher

Sidney Kingsley's successful drama, "Detective Story", is currently being presented by the Roff Guild of St. John Fisher College under the direction of the Rev. Adolore L. Houde, C.S.B., Ph.D.

Father Houde's theatrical, artistic and technical experience makes him especially qualified.

His artistic experience attained at St. Michael's College in Toronto has been invaluable in producing a truly unique set for "Detective Story."

THE SET IS a combination of the proscenium and theater-in-the-round styles of production especially adapted for this play and the conditions at the College.

Philadelphia — (NC) — A senior class play at West Philadelphia's Catholic High was the start of a stage career for a young actor named Iggie Wolfington.

Now appearing in Philadelphia again with Helen Hayes in "Mrs. McThing", Mr. Wolfington has behind him a number of honors: the Clarence Derwent Award as best supporting actor; the title "most prominent young actor," accorded him by New York drama critics; and special encouragement from the late Gertrude Lawrence.

It was Miss Lawrence who brought Iggie Wolfington into the musical comedy field, where after years of experience in summer stock and radio work, he became one of three top comedians of the summer musical circuit.
