 Columbus, N. C. (NC) — The Ohio County Welfare Commission has proposed legislation that would make parking the names of poor relief and old age pension recipients.

Holy Redeemer Team Leads Holy Name Bowling Tourney

Iroquois Dairy bowlers continued to hold the lead in the 18th Annual Holy Name Bowling Tournament competition early this week.

When the Holy Redeemer parish squad took to the alleys on Monday night at Rochester Bowling Center, 434 Lyell Ave., the Rt. Rev. Msgr. F. William Stauder, pastor of Holy Redeemer Church spoke words of encouragement to his team. He is one of the tournament founders.

Hudson Market shot the high three games over the weekend, totaling 2556. This team is from Holy Redeemer parish.

Sullivan's 570 Tops HMS League

Ray Sullivan topped the bowling season for the Holy Name Society in the HMS League with games of 561, 570 and 570 for a 570 total to lead the league. Ray has done well the three times he bowled on alleys 5610. The first time he totaled 560, the second time 569 and now for the third time, 570. But despite Ray's fine bowling and Captain Bud Graney's help with 504 Gonnaga could only win one point from the powerhouse Georgetown team.

Bishop McCormick (NC)—Auxiliary Bishop Patrick J. McCormick of Washington, who also is rector of the Catholic University of America, is recuperating in Providence Hospital here following a gall bladder operation.
