wing for St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell.

The Diocese of Rochester had an outstanding war record not only for participation on the home front in bond sales, scrap drives and other cooperative measures but in the number of priests who served on all fronts as chaplains and in the great number of young men and women, many of whom made the supreme sacrifice, who served in the armed forces.

Added devotion on the part of the laity is being encouraged in the annual Family Communion Sunday inaugurated by Bishop Kearney in 1936, in the daily recitation of the Family Rosary for Peace, in the practices of First Saturday and First Friday Clubs. The Novena of Grace personally fostered by the Bishop has been a source of great spiritual consolation to thousands.

In community and civic life, the Diocese is represented by the Bishop at Community Chest campaigns, and his messages given to various groups such as the American Legion and Kiwanis Club have been widely quoted.

The Diocese begins a new era with the Consecration of its first Auxiliary. Bishops, priests, sisters and people will continue to achieve with all fully aware that no good deed, even that which is done in the service of God, is done without the aid of God.

May the Joy

of This Day of Consecration
