Geneva KC Open Home To Airmen From Sampson

Geneva — A new week-end hospitality program for airmen from Sampson Air Force Base and other military personnel was inaugurated last week by Geneva Council, Knights of Columbus according to Grand Knight Thomas Gallagher.

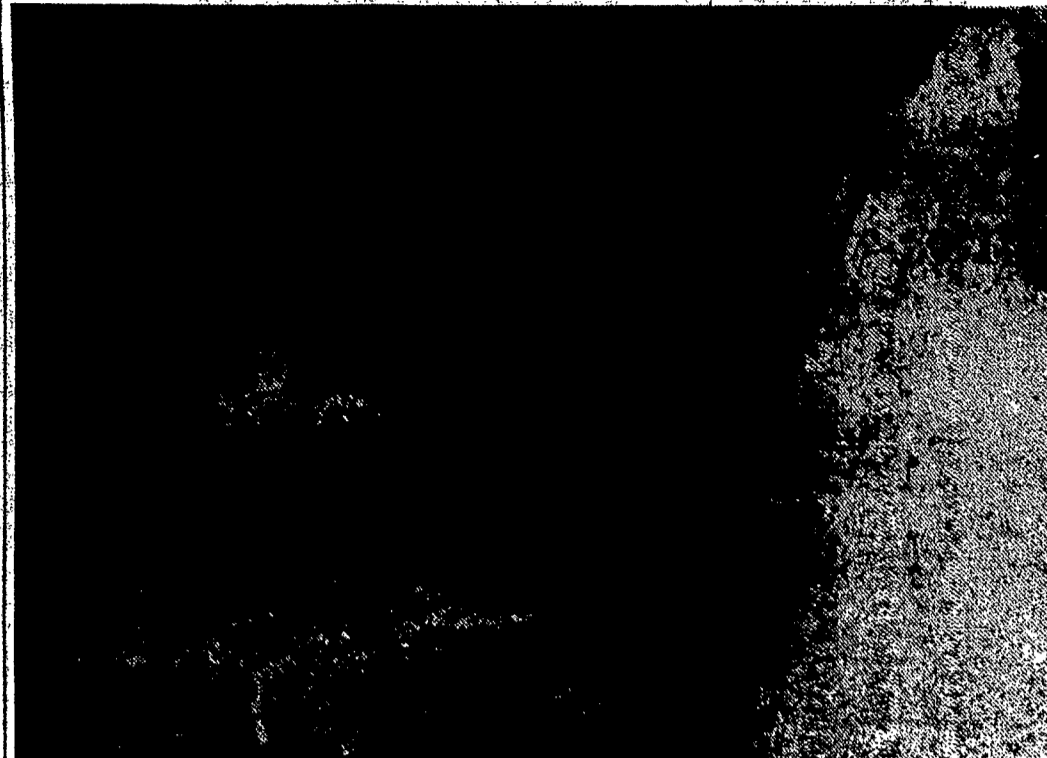

Under the new plan, the K of C Home on Milton St. will be open every week end to airmen, their families and guests. It will give them a place to rest, enjoy the recreation activities or visit with families or friends.

The home will be open every Saturday and Sunday throughout the season. Members of the council and their wives will act as hosts and hostesses.

EUGENE MARSHALL is general chairman of the new project. Acting as host and hostess for the opening day were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Knight. Host and hostess for Sunday will be Deputy Grand Knight Paul Lynch and Mrs. Lynch.

For the week end of May 8-10, the home will be open under a permanent schedule. Hours will be from 10 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday to the closing hour.

'Queen Of The May' On Campus

NAZARETH COLLEGE QUEEN, Miss Dorothy Mulcahy, senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Mulcahy, 65 Hurstbourne Road, takes final look in mirror to see if everything is in order for her appearance in campus May coronation.

Leaders Elected Of Nazareth Units

Election of Nazareth College leaders for next semester was completed this week. Winners, who will be inducted June 1 are:

Dorothy Mulcahy Chosen 1953 Nazareth May Queen

Miss Dorothy Mulcahy, Nazareth College senior, was crowned Queen of the women's college May Day program on Wednesday. Her coronation climaxed a day of religious and social activity which included a living rosary and maypole dance.

After receiving the crown herself, she placed it on a statue of the Blessed Mother, "the true Queen of the May."

MRS. MULCAHY is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Mulcahy, 65 Hurstbourne Rd., and a member of St. James' parish. She attended St. Ambrose parochial school and graduated from Our Lady of Mercy High School in 1949. At present she is majoring in sociology and plans to do social work after her graduation next month.

The 21-year-old, brown-haired, blue-eyed queen is prefect of the Nazareth College Sodality of Our Lady and is active in Catholic Action. The last two summers she attended the Summer School of Catholic Action at Fordham University. She also sings with the college Glee Club.

The Rev. Donald J. Mulcahy, director of Catholic Family Center, is her brother. One of her sisters is Sister Elaine Therese, S.S.J., a teacher at St. Agnes High School. The other is Mrs. James E. Keenan. Last summer Miss Mulcahy worked as a day-camp counselor at Charles Settlement House.

DRESSED IN a becoming lace-bridal gown and veil, joined for the occasion by McCarty's department store, the attractive collegienne was crowned by Miss Kathryn Curran, president of the student government body. Although the queen was chosen by the students in secret ballot, her identity was kept secret from students and faculty alike until she appeared in the procession preceding her coronation.

She was attended by fellow-students Virginia Mullen and Barbara Major, two representatives of the each of the other classes, and boy and girls of pre-school age who acted as pages and train-bearers.

That evening she attended the Sophomore-Senior Class Banquet at Lorena's restaurant while freshmen and juniors dined at the Villa.

Carolyn Krebs and Joan Shaw were chairmen of the Sister-Class banquet, assisted by the following committee heads: Mary Lee Bishop, Joan Ringlestein, Diane Bernard, Donna Ryan, Marie De Rosa, Joanne Vest, Joan Eseltine, Isabelle Biscoll, Mary Ann Dakin and Jackie DeMarco.

2 St. Salome Girl Scout Troops Entertain Mothers

Girl Scouts of Troops 276 and 287 of St. Salome's School were hostesses to their mothers at a luncheon at the school on Wednesday.

The girls presented their mothers with a gift of a keychain. The scouts arranged the tables, served breakfast and took over the clean-up duties.

Troop leaders are: Mrs. Lorraine Wispelwey and Mrs. Pat Speck.

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

DID you ever meditate on the words of Our Lord: "If you love to them of whom you hope to receive, what thanks are to you? ... Love hoping for nothing and you shall be sons of the Highest, for He is kind to the unthankful and the evil."

We lead a cup of sugar to a neighbor, knowing that one day we will get the sugar back. We loan $500 knowing we will be paid back with interest. I help you and you help me. All this is done with earthly love and affection, and it is to be commended. But these acts of loving mercy and grace, bicycles and wheelbarrows, do not make us Christians.

Our Lord bids us seek no reward from men, but to wait for our reward in heaven. He says that our reward shall be in being ungrateful. The greatest words on Judgment Day will be "You have already had your reward." Our Lord cautions us to give, no matter how insignificant those to who have received your gifts.

How many favors we have received in life which we have never paid back. There have been lent us by our mothers; our fathers have loaned us; our teachers; our teachers in the faith; their parents, love and prayers.

But more important still are the loans we have received from God that we never paid back. To make up for them, give some loans back again to God. Will you loan the Church $2.00, $10.00 or $25.00 or the equivalent of a package of cigarettes, or a hair-do machine, that the Holy Father may care for native clergy in India and Africa, may build a hospital for the lepers, a school in India, China, Java, Ceylon, etc. The highest mark of interest will be paid in the next life. The highest mark of interest will be paid in the next life. The highest mark of interest will be paid in the next life.

Registration Set For Area Seniors

Registrations for next semester's classes at Nazareth College will be accepted from area high school seniors from 9 to 5 Saturday and Sunday, May 16 and 17.

Sister Rosa Angela, dean of the college, and Sister Saint Catherine, dean of studies, will be present to interview and advise applicants for admission.

Sister Eva Marie, director of testing, and Sister Marie Ann, registrar, as well as department heads will assist with counseling and the arrangement of tests that may be necessary.

Out-of-town applicants for admission to the women's college are being put on a waiting list since dormitory facilities are temporarily full. Admission is still open, however, to applicants who will be able to live at home.

Prospective students are urged to take advantage of the counseling and testing benefits available at the Spring registration. Parents are welcome to accompany daughters and help plan their educational futures.
