Archconfraternity Dinner To Climax Centennial Of St. Joseph's Branch

Opened with a High Mass in St. Joseph's Church on last Sunday, the Centennial Celebration of the Archconfraternity of the Holy Family will be brought to a climax with a Jubilee Dinner on Sunday, May 10 at 5 p.m. in the school hall.

The members of the group are marking during the centenary the founding of the organization in St. Joseph's Parish in 1853 by the Rev. Father Banuach. Date of the founding was Aug. 14, 1853.

The Archconfraternity of the Holy Family was inaugurated in Liege, Belgium in 1844 by an army officer and a few workmen and placed under the direction of the Redemptorist Fathers.

Bishop Van Bommel of Liege sponsored the new society and applied for papal approbation. This was given by His Holiness Pope Pius IX on April 20, 1847. The Holy Father also elevated the Society to the rank of an Archconfraternity under the title of the Holy Family.

PURPOSE OF the Society is to place the home under the protection of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, that all, married and single, might imitate the virtues found in the Holy House of Nazareth, a spokesman said.

Founding of the Rochester unit was enthusiastically received 100 years ago and growth was rapid. In 1858, the branch in St. Joseph's numbered 1,275 members. With the turn of the century and decline of the parish, membership decreased. In 1935 a reorganization plan was adopted by the late Rev. John Lynch, C.SS.R. to revive and expand the Single Women's Division of the Holy Family.

THIS ACTIVE branch, in celebrating the centenary of the society, lists among its members today, descendants of the women who were among the society's founders in 1853.

Planning the Jubilee Dinner, Miss Louise Brown, president, was appointed honorary chairman and Miss Ann Verhoeven, who was the first president after the reorganization in 1935 was named general chairman. Mary Reichert will be toastmaster.

Assisting are: Loretta Angele, Evelyn Cassidy and Ada Meng, reception; Margaret Bradler and Margaret Wisler, decorations; Catherine Ferris, publicity and program; Marie Mayer, reservations; Minnie Verhoeven, dinner arrangements; and Margaret Coleman, musical program.

100TH ANNIVERSARY of Archconfraternity of the Holy Family of St. Joseph's Church to be climaxed Sunday at St. Joseph's hall is in charge of Miss Ann Verhoevens, seated, past president and chairman and Louise Brown, president, standing.
