Foster Parents Tea Set Sunday

The 13th Annual Foster Parents Tea in honor of some 1800 foster parents caring for nearly 4,000 temporarily homeless children will be held on Sunday, May 24 from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. in the Banquet Hall of the Chamber of Commerce.

The tea is sponsored by the Board of Directors and the Professional Staff of the Catholic Family Center, Family Services, Inc., the Jewish Social Service Bureau, Hillside Children's Center and the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children as well as the Child Placement Division of the Monroe County Department of Social Welfare, the Junior League of Rochester and the Family and Child Care Section of the Council of Social Agencies.

Mrs. Frank Gannett, a member of the New York State Board of Regents will pay homage to the parents who represent approximately 900 homes, for their contribution to the community as a whole as well as to the individual children entrusted to their care.

Wedding Bells To Follow Girls' Graduation Rites

School-bells are rapidly becoming a thing of the past — but wedding bells are very much in the future — for 12 Nazareth College seniors who are engaged to be married after their graduation June 3. They are:

Miss Mary Ellen Creedon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Creedon, 225 Flint St. to Thomas G. Maguire, son of Mrs. T. J. Maguire, Havertown, Pa.

Miss Rita Ennis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Ennis, 585 Seneca Pkwy., to Richard A. Schlemmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schlemmer, 5343 St. Paul Blvd.

Miss Elizabeth Hayes, daughter of Mrs. Alleene H. Hayes, 55 Burling Rd., to Bernard J. Galvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Galvin, 63 Brayton Rd.

Miss Jean Mullen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Mullen, 91 Westland Ave., Brighton, to William J. Whelan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Whelan, Lynn, Mass.

Miss Rosemary Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen G. Riley, 120 Aldine St., to Frank S. Noce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Noce, 54 Westmoreland Dr.

Miss Josephine Cristantiello, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Cristantiello, 313 Verona St., to Carl L. Fletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fletcher, St. Albans, W. Va.

Miss Helen Ann McCarthy, daughter of Mrs. D. F. McCarthy, Rome, N. Y., to Lt. John T. Wallace, U.S.A.F., son of Mrs. John Wallace, Schenectady, N.Y.

Miss Eunice T. Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Bradley, 203 Chesterfield Dr., to John L. Donovan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Donovan, 22 Nicholson St.

Miss Denise Anne Frey, daughter of Mrs. Jacob C. Frey, 136 E. Main St., Penn Yan, to T/Sgt. Donald P. Goodman, U.S.A.F., son of Mr. Charles S. Goodman, Coleman, Texas.

Miss Marcia Sink, daughter of Mrs. Arthur E. Sink, Bay View Rd., Irondequoit, to Dexter Merritt Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Roberts, formerly of Rochester, now of Ridgefield, N.J.

Miss Virginia Strife, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Strife, Old Forge, N.Y., to Larry Harjung, son of Mr. Lawrence Harjung, New York Mills, N.Y.

Miss Marjorie Klem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Klem, 35 Langford Rd., to Gerard McMahon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. McMahon, 108 Clay Ave.

SUCCESSFUL PLAYS produced by Holy Family Theatre resulted in a check for $3500 turned over to the pastor. Here Rev. George J. Schmitt, pastor received gift from Thomas J. O'Neill, president; as Clarence J. Dentinger, Margaret T. Frank and Donald DeFraine join in presentation.

Holy Family Players Give Pastor $3,500 At Banquet

About 100 members of the Holy Family Theatre of Rochester gathered at Valley Echo for their fourth annual banquet on Thursday evening, May 14.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of a check for $3,500 to the Rev. George Schmitt, pastor of Holy Family Church, by the Theatre group. Presentation was made by Thomas O'Neill, president of the organization

THIS CHECK represented the profit from the theatre's top productions, "Peg O' My Heart" and "The Robe," the largest amount in the group's history.

Honored guests at the dinner included Father Schmitt, the Rev. William Lammers, Rev. John J. Healy and Rev. E. Charles Bauer, moderator of the Theatre.

At a business meeting, Joe O'Connor was elected the new president of Holy Family Theatre and Dolores D'Agostino became recording secretary.

Mementos were given to O'Neill and Margaret Frank, outgoing officers.

Bernice Miller and Joe O'Connor received plaques in recognition of their outstanding performances in the past year's two productions

Trappistines Get Many Applications

Boston — (RNS)—Trappistine nuns in Franklin, Mass., received an average of three applications a day last year and two a day in the first four months of this year, according to Archbishop Richard J. Cushing of Boston. He said this indicates there is no lack of vocations for those who contemplate the religious life.

The Archbishop attributed the trend, in part, to the interest aroused by popular literature on monastic living. Dr. Thomas Merton's books, he said, have inspired thousands of men and women who seek to withdraw from worldly affairs and dedicate themselves to prayer and medication.

The Trappistine nuns observe the strictest rules of an enclosed monastic order. Their monastery in Franklin is the only one of its kind in the country.

Police Chief Gets Aid In Fight On Obsc...

Youngstown, O. — (RNS) — ... back Police Chief Edward J. Allen ... obscene literature from newsstands. ... Mr. Allen financial aid should he lose a libel suit brought against him by a New York publishing firm.

The support came in the form of a resolution, passed unanimously, thanking a newly-formed Citizens Committee for Decency which is backing Mr. Allen. The citizens group plans to raise a "war chest" to help pay court expenses.

A SECOND FEDERAL court hearing on an injunction request by the New American Library of World Literature Inc. New York, is pending. The firm is suing the city for $50,000 damages and the police chief for $3,500.

Councilman Anthony B. Flask, one of three who pledged money aid, the council said, has a "moral obligation" to supply funds since it is asking the chief to ... ordinance ... "obscene" ... Mr. Allen ... support ... main. Cohen ... to the ... books which have been removed from ... stands are obscene and immoral.

"I WILL GO on saying that until I am stopped by the court," he added. "It is my duty as police chief and it is the public's right to examine lawful police authority in having them removed from the public newsstands."

The New American Library, which has 30 titles on the chief's list of "indecent" books, asserts in its lawsuit that 443 titles have been banned here.

The baddies never ride white horses

It's all so easy in the Westerns. The bad guys always ride dark horses; the hero or his pal rides white. You can tell good from bad way down the canyon.

Not so easy are the real problems the kids grow up to meet. Danger may ride the white horse, and even do the singing round the campfire.

Like the people who try to push America into socialism. The things they propose, they say, are "to protect the people" or are "benefits only government can provide."

But you can spot the marks of socialism if you listen closely. The clues are these words: "the federal government should own and run" or "the government should take over" or "government can do it better and cheaper."

Those are the sure signs of socialism. History proves it in country after country in Europe and Asia. In the last 2 or 3 years, millions of Americans have recognized the threat right here in the U.S.

For socialistic ideas have spread alarmingly here. And the ways to stop socialism are to recognize it—to help your children and friends understand its dangers—to help your representatives in government resist its pressures—whether it's riding a dark horse or a white one.
