Singer Firm Opens Contest For Young Seamstresses

Local seamstresses, from age 12 to 17 inclusive, will compete for a new Singer Slant-Needle Sewing Machine and scores of other prizes by proving their skills in a Junior Dressmaking Contest. It was announced here today by a representative of the Singer Sewing Machine Co.

The contest, starting May 18, is open to girls 12 to 17.

JUDGING WILL be done at three levels with first and second prizes to be awarded at each, he explained. Girls enrolled in classes in the local Singer Sewing Center (or all city Singer Sewing Centers) will be eligible to compete for prizes and take part in a fashion show after September 12, the contest's closing date.

The top award in the world's newest sewing machine, the Singer Slant-Needle in the Raymond Lowry designed slant cabinet and steel. The combination sells for $247.50. Second place winner will receive the Singer Featherweight Portable Sewing Machine and table, a $125.00 value.

Judging of all garments will be based on the construction of design, neatness of construction and workmanship, fitting and finishing.

Rules and entry blanks are available at Singer Sewing Centers.
