Fr. Hohman Urges DCCW To Become Modern Apostles

Corning — The Rev. Louis J. Hohman, moderator for the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, was guest speaker at the annual tea of the Corning Deanery held Sunday at the Baron Steuben Hotel.

Introduced by the Rev. Daniel Hogan, assistant pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's Church, who is moderator of the Deanery, Father Hohman traced the course of Catholic Action from the time God commanded the apostles to "go forth and teach all nations" down to the present day. This task, Father Hohman explained, was not an easy one as the doctrines preached by the apostles were violently rejected by pagan influences.

IN SPITE of great persecutions the apostles, with the help of the Holy Ghost, carried on. Today, Father Hohman said that same grace is available through the Sacrament of Confirmation. In closing Father Hohman urged...

Farm Studies Win Honors For Owego School Graduate

Owego — For the second time with a few weeks another former pupil of St. Patrick's Parochial School has brought honors to the school through his achievements in higher education. This time, William Haner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Haner, is the honor student. Haner, who was graduated from St. Patrick's with the class of 1949, has been awarded the title of Empire State Farmer through his activities in farm studies and work. The award was announced at a meeting of the New York State Future Farmers Association held at Wellsville.

Haner was one of 122 students in New York State to receive the award and was the only one from Tioga County. It is believed that he is the first student at the Owego Free Academy, where he is a senior student, to capture this honor.

Three weeks ago Walter Szuca, another member of the 1949 class of St. Patrick's, won top place in a public speaking contest.

Double Ring Ceremony
Owego — A double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. William E. O'Brien, pastor, united in marriage Miss Mary Alice Miller of St. Patrick's Parish and Carroll Francis Lane, Esq., Saturday morning, May 23, in St. Patrick's Church. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock and was followed by the nuptial Mass with Father O'Brien as celebrant. Music was furnished by Mrs. Anna Meade, organist.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Miller, was attended by Miss Ruth Allen, Binghamton, as maid of honor. Lane, who is the son of Mrs. George Lane and the late Mr. Lane, had asked Robert B. Sykes, Endicott, to act as his best man.

CDAs Grand Regent Renamed In Ithaca

Ithaca — Court Santa Maria 240, Catholic Daughters of America, elected Mrs. Genevieve Essack, grand regent at the Knights of Columbus Home on May 3. The Court at a special meeting decided to hold the annual meeting in the fall.

Named with Mrs. Bessack were: Mrs. Agnes McCarthy, vice grand regent; Mrs. Kay O'Brien, prophetess; Mrs. Margaret McIsaac, lecturer; Mrs. Ann Smith Riley, historian; Mrs. Josephine Churey, financial secretary; Mrs. Dorothy Peters, elected treasurer; Mrs. Rita Pisch, monitor and Mrs. Mabel O'Neill and Mrs. Carmilla Fahney, elected sentinel and organist respectively.

Dansville Parishes Form Group To Plan New School

Dansville — Eighty parents of Dansville's two parochial schools, St. Mary's and St. Patrick's, gathered to discuss ways and means to further operation of the two schools which will be merged into one beginning this fall, and closed, the meeting with high hopes for "the kind of building" the children deserve within five years.

The group met in the Knights of Columbus rooms, Thursday of last week and again on Thursday, this week.

Organized was the Catholic Education Association, an outgrowth of a committee of 16 which got together last November to effect the merger. The committee was composed of eight members of each parish with Howard Cole as chairman.

OFFICERS elected were: J. Joseph Mahoney, president; Mrs. Harold A. Shay and Mrs. James Holden, vice presidents; Mrs. Paul E. Wamp, Jr., secretary and Robert F. Hart, treasurer.

The group discussed possible costs for a new building and it was estimated that it might be constructed for as little as $140,000 "or even $90,000" as one speaker put it.

It is understood that stress would be put on a "functional" building rather than one of elaborate design and construction.

"The use of cement blocks for an exterior deserves serious study," the Rev. John D. O'Donnell, declared, citing the instances of other parochial schools using that type of construction with what he termed "great success."

THE NEW SOCIETY was addressed by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles J. Mahoney, superintendent, Catholic Schools, Diocese of Rochester; the Rev. Edward M. Scheid, pastor of St. Mary's Church and Father O'Donnell, pastor of St. Patrick's Church.

MUSEUM TO BE CLOSED ON MEMORIAL DAY

Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences will be closed Decoration Day, May 30 and Sunday, May 31. It is announced by W. Stephen Thomas, Museum Director.

Summer visiting hours will start on June 1 when the Museum will be open to the public daily, Monday through Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Chairman Cole advised caution and future study before any action is taken.

Monsignor Mahoney in his talk stressed the need for religious training as a vital part of the task of educating children.

Noting the increasing interest in religious training in public and private schools, Monsignor Mahoney said:

"I believe that one day the American people will settle for themselves the question of religious education."

Plans to make the high school cafeteria available to parochial school children starting in the fall are "about completed," the society was told.
