Merged Auburn Societies Encouraged By Pastor

Auburn — The First Annual Banquet of the newly organized Rosary and Sacred Heart Society of Holy Family Parish was held Monday, June 1 at Springside Inn with over 100 in attendance.

Mrs. George A. Snyder was guest speaker. Miss Ida Ferry, toastmaster, was presented to the group by the president, Mrs. Veronica M. Smith, who welcomed the women.

THE PASTOR, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John A. Conway, V.F., expressed his pleasure with the recently merged societies. He recalled that the Rosary and Scapular Society had been the oldest Catholic organization in the City of Auburn and declared he anticipated a long and glorious future for its successor.

Mrs. Anna M. Stevens, who had served the Rosary and Scapular as secretary for 30 years was presented a gift on behalf of the organization by Miss Ferry. In responding Mrs. Stevens expressed her pleasure in being a member of the new organization as she had been an officer of the old.

The Rev. William E. Davie, principal of Holy Family High School was a guest of the society. Mrs. Thomas J. Fraher sang several solos and led the group in communally singing. Accompanist for Mrs. Fraher and for the group singing was Mrs. Clarence Maywalt.

Taking cognizance of the fact that she was appearing before a new society, the speaker declared "Becoming a member of another organization does not necessarily make another person of us. Developing her theme from the writings of St. Louis de Montfort, Mrs. Snyder urged her hearers "by prayer and diligent application to become more beautiful parts of a more beautiful whole."

Lima CDA Elects Mrs. B. Gannon

Lima — Mrs. Bertha Gannon was elected grand regent of Court FitzSimons No. 1188 Catholic Daughters of America at the business and social meeting held May 25 in Lima Town Hall.

Mrs. George Peters, grand regent presided at the business session. Also elected were: Mrs. Charles Courtney, vice grand regent; Mrs. Matthias Recktenwald, lecturer; Mrs. George Hanrahan, historian; Miss Vera Costello, prophetess; Mrs. Richard Menz, monitor; Mrs. Bernard Ryan, financial secretary; Mrs. John Smyth, treasurer; Mrs. William O'Brien, sentinel; Mrs. William Maloy, organist; Mrs. B. Leo McIntee and Mrs. Edward Hogan, trustees for 3 years.

PROGRAM centered around the theme "Review of the Olden Days" with Miss Anita L. O'Connell, moderator and musical accompaniment by Mrs. Harold Leary.

Old type costumes were styled by Miss Jane Leary, Mrs. M. Recktenwald, Mrs. George Hanrahan, Mrs. Charles Tubbs, Mrs. Charles Courtney and Mrs. Mary Webb. Old time songs and poems with showing of CDA members' baby pictures varied the program. Old newspapers, and albums of old photographs were enjoyed.

Community Field Day, Scout Carnival Listed

A Community Field Day and Scout Carnival will be sponsored by Tay House Boy Scout Troop Committee at No. 1 School Grounds, Hillside Ave. on Saturday June 6 from 1 to 10 p.m. Dinner will be served by the Mothers' Auxiliary. A Teen age dance will be held Saturday night. Fun for mother, dad and the "kiddies" is promised by the committee.

Great here: Frequently, a man of straw created out of the scantiest materials—the apple William Tell never pierced with an arrow, the ride Paul Revere started but didn't finish; the flag Barbara Fritchie never hung from her window.

Living Rosary Presented By Webster Youth Sodality

Webster — A beautiful and impressive ceremony at Holy Trinity Church, Webster, culminated the month of May last Sunday, May 31, at 4 o'clock.

Sponsored by members of the Holy Trinity Youth Sodality, a living Rosary was formed, composed of young women attired in formal, assisted by the young men of the parish.

A statue of the Blessed Virgin, surrounded by flowers, was crowned by Kay Kline, May Queen and Vice-President of the Sodality. Attendants Margaret Berthold and Mary Prinzling and Pages Martha Holihan and Carol Hooser assisted her.

Following the Rosary, boys and girls of the eighth grade of Holy Trinity School were solemnly received into the Sodality. The new members include: Catherine Barrett, Shirley Mintz, Mary Ann Repp, Judy Finn, Mary Berthold, Marilyn Miller, Mary Ann Gray, Betty Feldbauer, Sue Herbst, Nancy Gore, Anita LaBelle, Ann Aman, Arisa Godfrey, and Margaret Smith.

Also, Wallace Orlovsky, Donald Rosenfeld, Thomas Becker, Thomas Hurysz, Gerald Hill, Francis Rauber, Richard Swingly, Ronald Sippel, Stephen Miller, Ronald Schwenzler, Donald Basch, and Joseph Kuebel.

Our Blessed Mother has extended her hand to all of her children here on earth and in her hand she holds the Rosary and the Scapular. Through these external aids she has provided the members of her family not only with the promise of salvation but with the promise of blessings in every day life.

In meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary we live again Christ's life on earth as we pass through the scenes of His childhood, His Passion and Death, and of His Glorious Resurrection. It is through prayer and meditation that we find God and are drawn closer to Him.
