Flag Day Parade Listed By St. Andrew's CWV

Flag Day will be observed by St. Andrew's Post, Catholic War Veterans with a parade and block dance on Saturday evening, June 13 according to mander and general chairman.

The parade leaving Pulaski Park at 7 p.m. and led by the Sampson Air Force Base Endowment Band of 60 pieces will march to the Norton and Portland Shopping Center where civic and veterans' leaders will review the marchers from the speakers platform. The band will be directed by Lt. Theodore Nichols.

MICHAEL TREESY, past commander, Department of New York, D.A.V. who gives instructions and suggestions from his wheelchair where he has been confined for 35 years as a result of World War I, is honorary chairman and will act as parade marshal.

Principal address on the significance of Flag Day will be delivered by the Rev. Richard Torney, former U. S. Navy Chaplain and chaplain of Our Lady of Mercy High School.

Highpoint on the program will be the presentation of a testimonial plaque to Deputy Commissioner of Public Safety Victor Raycroft by County Commander General Beauchamp of the Catholic War Veterans in behalf of the CWV recognizing the outstanding safety record of the City of Rochester.

Dancing will follow the speaking program with music furnished by Johnny Capone and orchestra.

FLAG DAY in Rochester has been sadly neglected and we are striving to tell people how and when to honor and display the flag. It's our symbol of freedom and liberty and deserves our very best attention," Commander Fred Herman of St. Andrew's Post and co-chairman of arrangements said in the announcement of the program.

Others making arrangements are: Michael Tedone, flag ceremony; Richard Schuster, public relations; Fred DeLorme and John Conway, publicity; Herbert Kahl and Stanley Lemicki, connections; John Betford, dance; Lewis Smith and Thomas Brennan, parade; William Cronin, legal; Mrs. Teresa Davis, flag distributions and Joseph Ferrarillo and Miss Marie Logan, secretaries.

Holy Hour Draws 600 To St. Andrew

22 parishes in this northeast section, transferred from the old St. Patrick's Center.

Monsignor Eski expressed his appreciation of the selection of St. Andrew's Church as the Center for this Society in that section of Rochester and extended commendation and high praise for the efficient, orderly yet quiet manner in which the officers and their parish committees had accomplished this remarkable undertaking of new members.

Following exposition of the blessed Sacrament, the men joined in the recitation of the First Nocturn of the Office of the Society and the devout and impressive Act of Reparation.

The Act of Reparation by the new members was received by the Rev. Leo C. Mosney, pastor of St. Patrick's Church and long the Spiritual Director of the original Branch of the Society in Rochester.

The services closed with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament with music furnished by St. Andrew's, which was the 600th anniversary of the Society in Rochester.
