DOMINICAN THIRD ORDER

The June meeting of the St. Catherine of Sienna Chapter, Third Order of St. Dominic will be held Sunday, June 14 at Notre Dame Retreat House, 246 Alexander St., at 3:30 p.m.

The Director of the Chapter, the Very Rev. Albert Drexelius, O.P. will conduct the exercises consisting of an explanation of the Rule, Rosary, sermon, Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, and veneration of a relic of St. Dominic.

FATHER DREXELIUS is anxious to have all members present so that certain records may be straightened out. Any other Catholic is welcome to attend this meeting to find out more about the Dominican Third Order.

Those not of the Third Order often ask what are the benefits of membership. Tertiaries are real members of the Dominican family; have at their disposal the guidance and spirituality of this ancient Order which has produced so many saints and blessed some of whom were Tertiaries.

They have a Rule of life to regulate their efforts at holiness; they share in the prayers and good works of the entire Order, during life and even after death; they have innumerable opportunities to gain indulgences; and they have the aid of a Chapter Director and the encouragement and example of their fellow Tertiaries.

Card Party Slated At Knights' Club

A card party will be sponsored by Commanderies and Auxiliaries of the Knights of St. John in the Knights and Ladies of St. John Club, 365 Andrews St. on Friday evening, June 12.

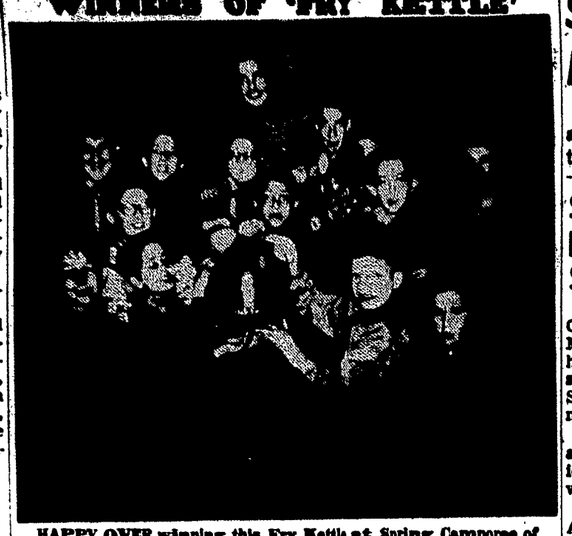
WINNERS OF 'FRY KETTLE'



HAPPY OVER winning this Fry Kettle at Spring Camporee of Boy Scouts of America held at Camp Cutler are those members of Troop 137 of SS. Peter and Paul's Parish. The boys also won the Camping Award at the same camporee.

2 Awards Won At Camp By SS. Peter and Paul Troop

In a rare achievement, SS. Peter and Paul's boys scouts of Troop 137 won the Fry Kettle Award and the Camping award at the Spring Camporee at Camp Cutler, leaders of the troop reported this week.

The Fry Kettle award goes to the troop outdoing all competitors in knots, lashes, first aid, fire-building, Morse code signaling, compass and measuring. More than 100 years old, the award is competed for twice a year by the boy scouts, at the Spring and the Fall Camporees.

Troop 137, the youngest troop to win the Fry Kettle, being in existence three and a half years, will keep possession of the trophy until the Fall Camporee.

The Camping award was won by the troop because it excelled in cleanliness at camp, scoutlike conduct, participation in all activities and camp gadgets.

Leaders of the award winning troop are: Rev. C. Richard Nangle, chaplain; Leonard Viccaro, scoutmaster; Lloyd Stanzel, Jr., Chester Pisarek and William Bishop, Sr., assistant scoutmasters and Anthony Ferrari, patrol leader.

Mrs. Nelson Willoughby Mourned By Many In Area

Requiem Mass was celebrated Friday morning, June 5 at St. Jerome's Church, East Rochester for Mrs. Nelson F. Willoughby of Fairport. Mrs. Willoughby, who died June 2, 1953 at her home, was well known for her generosity and friendliness both in Rochester and in New York City, where she lived for a number of years.

Born Amanda Englert, she spent a few years in old St. Joseph's Orphanage, before leaving to live with her sister, now Mrs. C. Leah McLean. Remembering her life with the Sisters, she began her life work of making happiness for others whenever she could.

Many a youngster of St. Joseph's had "Aunt Maunie" as she was affectionately called, as a sponsor in confirmation. On holidays and birthdays, there were always children at her side, having a real celebration.

MANY A FAMILY had a happy Christmas because of her generosity. Since her death last week, countless incidents have come to light which prove her kindness and love. Typically, most of her deeds were performed quietly and, in many cases, without the knowledge of the recipient.

As Miss Englert, she will be remembered by many of the clergy and religious of the diocese, for her many years' work in connection with church missions, where she sold religious articles for Trant's.

After her marriage in 1936 to Mr. Willoughby, she lived in the East Rochester-Fairport area. As an employee of the New York Central in the ticket office, she found many occasions to help and smooth the way for bewildered travelers.

DURING RECENT years, she was an active member of Blessed Sacrament Parish.

She leaves, besides her husband, a son Lewis Willoughby of Hamburg, New York, a daughter, Mrs. John Stewart of Washington, D.C. Three sisters, Mrs. C. Leah McLean and Mrs. Eva Weber of Rochester and Mrs. Howard Forbes of Los Angeles, a brother, Charles Englert of Braddock Heights, 24 nieces and nephews, 53 grand nieces and grandnephews.
