Emulate St. Francis, St. Bona Men Told

Alumni of St. Bonaventure University were called upon to put the ideals of St. Francis of Assisi into practice in their daily lives by the Rev. Francis Duffy, O.F.M., at the Sixth Annual Communion Breakfast of Rochester Chapter, Sunday at Powers Hotel.

Fathers, sons, undergraduates, entering students and alumni numbering 300 assisted at Mass at old St. Mary's Church, celebrated by the Rev. Charles Adams, O.F.M., of Rochester and member of St. Bonaventure faculty.

Deplored the fact that those least concerned with making this country Christian are Catholics, Father Duffy called upon his hearers to not only reach out for others but to perfect their own lives as examples to others.

Officers of the club elected are: Mark Touhey, president; William Bennett, vice president; Robert Conroy, secretary and Dr. John Falvo, treasurer.

Toastmaster of the breakfast was Hon. Henry E. Gillette, '28, judge of City Court of Rochester.
