Camp Columbus Board Name F. E. Porten As President

Auburn—Camp Columbus, east side of Owasco Lake opened its first six weeks of encampment for boys on Sunday. The last three weeks will be for girls.

Named as president of the Board of Directors of Camp Columbus, Inc. was Frederick E. Porten, Ninth Ward Supervisor at a board meeting presided over by the Rev. Frederick G. Straub, pastor of St. Alphonsus Church. Father Straub was reelected board chairman.

Other officers elected were: Vice president, John J. Hyland; the Rev. Andrew W. Teuschel, treasurer; James F. O'Neill, secretary; the Rev. Clarence W. Gardner, camp director.

Earl Hart was elected a member of the Board of Directors.

THE CAMP property was purchased on July 13, 1933, and since that time has developed into one of the finest camps of its type in the state.

The latest improvements include a new shrine near the camp entrance and a black top basketball court.

A rising vote of thanks was given by the directors to the Rev. Robert A. Meng in appreciation for the excellent work he has done during the four years that he has been associated with Camp Columbus.

Father Meng, who left to assume his new duties as assistant pastor at St. Patrick's Church in Rochester, was presented with a purse by the directors.

Other directors present were William E. Bouley, Raymond E. Baier, Herbert T. Anderson, Edward J. Jennings, Raymond W. Rice, Francis C. Marshall, Joseph E. Graney, Francis C. Cuddy, Leo A. Pinckney, William D. Ganey, Albert C. Holzhauer, George Baier, Meredith R. Langham, Arthur J. Smith, Leonard A. Migliore, Karl J. Koenen and Frederick Atkinson, past president, and James J. Hickey.

Headquarters Set For Humane Society

The Humane Society of Rochester and Monroe County is building its new headquarters at 3537 West Henrietta Road. On a six acre plot of land opposite the Hylan Airport, and office building and modern small animal shelter is in progress of construction.

The main building in addition to office space will include comfortable living quarters for the caretaker, a large club room and library for the use of dog, cat and bird lover clubs, and youth organizations, like the Boy and Girl Scouts.

The new small animal shelter will contain observation, isolation, and adoption wards which will comfortably house more than one hundred dogs and cats. All animals coming in to the Humane Society will be placed in the observation ward. After a veterinarian has examined the dog or cat, upon his recommendation, it will move either to the hospital isolation ward or to the adoption ward which is open to the public from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. seven days a week.

Montreal Cardinal Leger To Visit Martyrs' Shrine

Auriesville—Pilgrims to the Shrine of Our Lady of Martyrs, Auriesville, from New York and New England are looking forward to the visit on July 5, of one of the most renowned figures in North America, His Eminence, Paul Emile Cardinal Leger, D.D., Archbishop of Montreal.

Newly created a Cardinal, His Eminence is one of Canada's greatest orators.

Beloved by the people of Canada, Cardinal Leger makes frequent visits to all parts of his diocese where he gathers the people in churches and squares to recite the Rosary and pray with them.

SIX THOUSAND of the poorest people of Quebec recently enjoyed the hospitality of His Eminence at a dinner which he arranged himself and at which he presided.

All services of the day will be in French and English, and Cardinal Leger will carry the Blessed Sacrament through the Shrine grounds during the afternoon.

The well-known choir of St. Joseph's Church, Cohoes, and the Fort Crailo band will provide the sacred music throughout the day.

PILGRIMS OF all nationalities are invited to greet His Eminence. Members of pilgrimages are welcome to bring box lunches, or refreshments and full course meals are available at the Shrine.

Visitors to the Shrine this year will find the Kateri Museum completely redecorated, with the latest Indian artifacts found on the grounds at the Shrine installed there. The Museum is devoted to antiquities of the Mohawks and their predecessors, and excavations have continued during the past year on the grounds at the Shrine, which was at one time the Indian Village of Ossernenon.

Masses are held on the hour from seven until twelve o'clock on Sundays.
