AMONG WOMEN Journey Prayer

By Mary Lennon Snyder

Today is the beginning of one of the major holiday weekends in the civic calendar; and in keeping with the spirit of the modern world this is a signal for all who are Here to want to go There and for all who are There to want to come Here. The result is a crowding of all transportation media with the resultant casualty lists in Monday evening's papers.

It is hoped, will make travel less dangerous. The prayer will encourage men to remain in the state of grace and always be prepared to meet God; it will remind them to be more careful in their travels; it will bring God's blessings on them during their trips on business or for pleasure.

WHAT'S DOING AT THE DALYS' 'The Fourth'

By Mary Tinley Daly

At our house, as at yours, "The Fourth" is much more than the 24 hours between July 3 and July 5—more than just a holiday, though it's a glorious holiday. It's a day when feeling for our country finds expression—in a minor way, perhaps, but with deep significance.

then the "fairy dance" when each sparkler becomes for a little while a fairy wand in a small hand. And when the sky becomes really dark and the neighbors have brought their fireworks to add to ours, the men and older boys put on the works: flower pots, pinwheels, Roman candles, sky rockets.

Here's to the Red of it There's not a thread of it, No, nor a shred of it In all the spread of it From foot to head, But heroes bled for it, Faced steel and lead for it, Precious blood shed for it, Bathing it Red!

Here's to the Blue of it — Beautiful hue of it, Heavenly view of it, Star-spangled dew of it, Constant and true, Diadems gleam for it, States stand supreme for it, Liberty's beam for it, Brightens the Blue! Brightens the Blue!

Here's to the Whole of it Stars, stripes and pole of it, Body and soul of it, O, and the roll of it, Sun shining through; Hearts in accord for it, Swear by the sword for it, Thanking the Lord for it, Red, White and Blue!

Here's to the White of it — Thrilled by the sight of it, Who knows the right of it, But feels the might of it Through day and night? Womanhood's care for it, Made manhood dare for it, Purity's pray for it, Keeps it so White!

MARTYRS' ORPHANS STARVING

Once healthy millions in Iran have been all but decimated through a series of brutal military occupations since World War I. Many priests and faithful were killed during the Russian episode in 1915. The good Daughters of Charity are caring for these orphaned and now destitute orphans; only six priests remain in the area. The Sisters went out by jeep to priestless villages to teach catechism. To buy food for the lots Sister Carman was forced to sell the jeep. HELP IS URGENTLY NEEDED. 35 clothes are. We can keep one for a month on $18. Another jeep? The work must go on. Won't you?

LOST CAUSE

We have hoped and pleaded for help for the Holy Cross Sisters in India. Tremendous missionary opportunities are being lost through their lack of a MISSION HOSPITAL. Kind donors are assured the priceless prayers of these "Martyrs of mercy" and the grateful blessing of those poor sick in their care. Your least mite is the gold of sacrifice for Christ. $1 buys a brick. Thinking of a memorial? Endow a bed for $250.

CENSORSHIP LIFTED

Your daily secular newspaper does not report how much the Holy Father is doing for 350,000 Arabs displaced from their homes in Palestine. Our pamphlet, "Sufficient Unto the Day," tells the almost unbelievable story. Write for it. Your many aims to our REFUGEE FUND have made it possible. Your FOOD PACKAGES ($10) have saved hundreds of starving families.

MALEK IS SEMINARIAN?

Strange, but true. He is an Egyptian youth in St. Leo Seminary at Tushah. He has four more years to go, but unless we find a friend to help him with the $100 yearly cost of his training, his dreams may be shattered. Won't you help him with this annual sum. Give in any installments. You will be forever in his heart and prayers.

SISTER BERNARD

This lovely young lady has entered as a novice with our Sacred Franciscan Missionaries of Mary at Rahon, Lebanon. She is without the means to meet the yearly cost of her training—$110. Won't you help her, in any payments you choose, with this yearly sum for her two years. You'll win the undying gratitude of this noble soul.
