Public School Named For Catholic Teachers
 Tucson, Ariz.—(NC)—Tucson's five Duffy sisters have devoted their lives to teaching in the public schools of the area over the past 35 years, and the city school board has decided it's time to do something in return. So one of Tucson's new schools will be named the Duffy School in honor of the daughters of Catholic pioneers here.

Rochester Priest Named Superior Of LaSalette Unit
 Rev. Stanley Matuszewski, M. S., editor of the national Marian review, Our Lady's Digest, was appointed superior of the LaSalette Fathers' vicariate at Olivet, Ill. The appointment was made in Rome by Very Rev. Joseph Imhof, M.S., Superior General.

The Olivet foundation was established in 1942 as another Douai for the war-torn, Communist province of the LaSalette Fathers in eastern Europe. Since the Iron Curtain has frustrated these efforts, Olivet was set up as the headquarters of a special vicariate with houses in the midwest and Canada.

A new mission house was recently added to the vicariate with the purchase of the Pabst mansion in Milwaukee.

FATHER MATUSZEWSKI went to Olivet in 1942 as prefect of discipline. In 1946 he became rector of LaSalette Seminary and in 1951 mission procurator for the midwest vicariate.

Father Matuszewski is remembered in his youth as a Monroe County oratorical champion. He was honored by the Rochester Centennial Committee at Edgerton Park in 1934 and is the author of the city's centennial oration. He is a former faculty adviser of the Midwest Conference of International Relations Clubs. Recently he was named to the executive board of the Maritological Society of America.

He has two other brothers in the priesthood, the Rev. Leo J. Matuszewski of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, Rochester, and the Rev. Eugene Matuszewski of Syracuse. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Matuszewski, of 29 Zygmont St.
