Courier Sustains Faith Of Reader

A grateful reader of the Courier-Journal, name withheld for obvious reasons, writes as follows.

"As I explained last year we were expecting a fourth baby and things were tough.

"Well, God blessed us with a baby girl last year; she's a joy to behold. Of course that means another mouth to feed and care for. And since her birth, 15 months ago, I have not been well and am under the doctor's care (which is so expensive).

"As you can gather, our financial situation is still not good. During my illness the Courier has been my only link with my religion.

"Thank you again from the bottom of my heart and may God bless you and your work. Let me say that I was losing my way and the Courier helped set my feet in the right path again."
