300 See Elmira Octagon-Shaped Chapel Blessed

(Continued from Page 7) - exclusive of the members of the community for whom 32 choir stalls will be provided. The chapel was designed by J. Sanford Shanley, noted liturgical architect and president of the Liturgical Art Society.

The new chapel has already received a number of valuable pieces of rare liturgical art including a French 13th century stone statue of the Madonna and Child, a 14th century triptych painted in Southern France and a rare 17th or 18th century wood carving of Christ on the Cross.

THE COMMUNITY property consists of 500 acres, donated by friends, and contains three farmhouses in addition to four barns and other farm structures. Much of the land is suitable for grazing purposes and crop cultivation and eventually will afford subsistence for a potential community of eighty inhabitants. Much work, however, remains to be done before the self-supporting stage will be reached. Live-stock, machinery, and other equipment must be obtained and the land must be improved.

The community now consists of four monk-priests, eight monks who have taken their first vows, two novices and two postulants; five more postulants will arrive within the next two months.

Pastor Returns After 2 Months Service in Navy

The Rev. John F. Woloch, pastor of St. Michael's Church, Livonia Center and St. Mary's Homeoye returned last week after a two-month tour of duty as a U. S. Navy Reserve officer.

During the rank of Commander, Father Woloch served as chaplain aboard the U.S.S. Sappan, an aircraft carrier which was used for the Annual Midshipmen's Training Cruise from the Naval Academy. The cruise was to South America ports. Father Woloch praised highly the cooperation given him by the officers and the devotion of the men, especially the one-third of the 3500 crew who are Catholics. While there is strong evidence of Communist influence in South America, the church is proving a strong deterrent, he said.

Social, Supper Resumed At Camp Stella Maris

For the first time in many years, Camp Stella Maris, the diocesan summer camp, will sponsor a Supper and Social on Wednesday evening, Sept. 2, at the Camp on Conesus Lake.

Supper will be served from five until eight. The supper is being offered in response to the many friends of the camp who enjoyed the Stella Maris Socials of by-gone years.

The party will also help to defray the expense of the many improvements which have been made at the Camp. Tickets can be purchased at Columbus Civic Center or at the Camp on Sept. 2.

The following girls are now at the Camp:

Business Classes For Adults Slated

Day classes in business subjects for adults will open Wednesday, Sept. 9, at Jefferson High School.

These classes have been set up to meet the needs of those wanting a refresher course to brush up on previously learned skills as well as for those with no previous business training. There will be classes in typewriting, shorthand, bookkeeping, filing, as well as a wide variety of calculating, transcribing, duplicating, and bookkeeping machines.

No tuition is charged to residents of Rochester. These classes provide an opportunity for the development of business skills which are so urgently needed at the present time. Students may arrange class schedules to suit their individual needs.

Students may register with Charles E. Cook, Director of Business Education, 13 South Fitzhugh Street, or at the school after September 9.

Henderson Chapel Aid Asked by Pastor

Summer visitors to Henderson Harbor near Sackets Harbor, Lake Ontario from this area are joining in raising funds for construction of a new chapel at Henderson according to the Rev. John M. Kennedy, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Sackets Harbor.

The work must be done according to Father Kennedy "to give the proper capacity to let everyone have a place to hear Mass on Sunday. We need funds badly to get this work under way as soon as possible.

We are asking people who visit Henderson in the summer to help us with the work. Building is expensive and until we get sufficient funds the work cannot begin."

Money or material may be donated to the Rev. John M. Kennedy, Sackets Harbor. Sunday Masses at Sackets Harbor are: 7:15, 8:30 and 10:30 a.m., week days 8; First Friday 7:30; Holy Days 7 and 9, after Sept. 6, Sunday 8 and 10:30; Henderson Sundays 7 and 9:15; Holy Days, 8 and after Sept. only one Mass at 8:15 a.m.

Misfortunes It is always much easier to bear all the misfortunes of our neighbors than one of our own.

FOTS OF CALL

Included Santos, San Paulo and Rio de Janeiro in Brazil; Colon, Panama, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba and back to Norfolk, Va. Mass was celebrated daily at 6:10 by Chaplain Woloch. Rosary was recited at 4:30 and instructions were given in the evening. In San Paulo, the Oblate Fathers received the men and entertained them. Father Woloch said.
