Panes Observe Wedding Jubilee At Geneva Mass

Geneva — Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Pane, 123 N. Exchange St., celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday at a garden party at their home. They were married in 1893 by the late Rev. William McDonald in St. Francis de Sales Church.

Members of the family attended a High Mass at 7 a.m. Sunday in the chapel of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary, Lochland Rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Pane are members of St. Francis de Sales parish. Mr. Pane is employed by Maxwell Bowden Rice Nurseries.

A LARGE anniversary cake was the central feature of the table decorations for dinner which was served on the lawn. Roses and gladioli formed the bouquets. Mrs. Pane wore an attractive orchid corsage given her by her family.

The Panes have four sons, Joseph, Frank and Patrick, of Geneva, and Henry of California; and a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Cannull, of Geneva, and eight grandchildren. Henry was unable to attend the anniversary dinner but sent a congratulatory telegram which was read during the dinner.

Fr. Collins Named Niagara Treasurer

Niagara University, N. Y. — Niagara University alumnus, the Rev. James D. Collins, C.M., member of the board of trustees at St. John's University, Brooklyn, and who was for the past 14 years has served as assistant treasurer at the latter school has been named treasurer at Niagara University.

Designation of Father Collins to the important post was made by the Rev. Daniel M. Leary, C.M., provincial of the Eastern province of the Congregation of the Mission (Vincentian Fathers).

A native of Little Falls, Father Collins attended Niagara University from 1930 to 1932, transferring in the latter year to St. Joseph's College, Princeton, N. J., where he finished his collegiate courses. He completed his theological studies at St. Vincent's seminary, Germantown, Pa., and was ordained to the priesthood in Philadelphia in 1935 by Dennis Cardinal Dougherty.

Tons of Potato Chips
In 1932, just 99 years after the first potato chip was accidentally prepared at a resort near Saratoga Springs, the manufacturers turned out 370,722,139 pounds of potato chips. To do this they had to purchase 1,462,499,600 pounds of raw potatoes.

Blind Leader Of Radio Rosary

EMPLOYEES of Rochester Products Division, General Motors in reciting the Rosary on the Family Rosary for Peace Program on WSAJ were led by Howard Smith, second from left on last Wednesday. On other occasions, shown with the Rev. Joseph A. Cirincione, director, Howard O'Brien, (left) and Fred Johnson were leaders. The three laymen are sightless.

RPD Employees Led In Radio Rosary By Blind Convert

A group of employees of Rochester Products Division, General Motors was heard reciting the Rosary for Peace over WSAJ from St. Francis of Assisi Center, on August 26.

This was one of a series of such recitations by the General Motors employees which was given adequate picture coverage in the August issue of "The Apprentice."

Leading the Rosary with the Rev. Joseph A. Cirincione, director of the Family Radio Rosary for Peace presiding was a blind man and convert, Howard L. Smith one of the employees joining him were Kenneth Johnson and Howard O'Brien, also blind, and leaders at previous broadcasts.

THE PRACTICE of reciting the Rosary was initiated by employees of Department 15 of RPD. A small group consisting of Howie Long, Eddie Kastner, Charles Long, Tom Craig and Joe Kilpeck began the program. Others joined in including members of the families and friends of the employees. Now the practice is a regular thing.

Mr. Smith, the leader on August 26 is a member of Holy Apostles Parish, Rochester. He was admitted to the church on April 4th at Holy Rosary Church by the Rev. James Marvin and was confirmed in a class of adults by His Excellency Bishop Casey in Sacred Heart Cathedral on May 24.

He joined in the Boy Scout Scout movement at the age of 12 and holds the Eagle Badge, Bronze Palm and more than 35 merit badges earned toward the gold and silver palm.

Miss Patricia E. Peers, chairman of the dinner announces that the toastmistress from the honored class will be Mrs. Ruth Hyde Walker while the historian will be Mrs. Rosemary Lortz Marache. His Excellency Bishop Kearney and His Excellency Bishop Casey will be guests of honor.

Miss Peers will be assisted by Miss Marilyn Winfield, Honorary Chairman and President of the Association. HEADING THE committees will be Miss Nancy Monnet.

Owasco Parishers Slate Bazaar, Dinner At Camp

Owasco — Parishioners of St. Ann's Church, Owasco will hold their annual bazaar and chicken and ham dinner at Camp Colambus, East Lake Road on Sunday, Sept. 13 from noon until 7 p.m.

A program of attractions and contests has been planned. The entire congregation and their friends, Catholic and non-Catholic are working to make this one annual event an outstanding success.

The dinner tickets for adults will be $1.50 and for children, $1.00. This is the only social event of the year in St. Ann's and the committees are working hard to make this equal all former bazaars and dinners, the announcement said.

The Rev. Orrin Feller, pastor of St. Ann's, a mission of St. Patrick's Church, Moravia, and his predecessor, the Rev. Francis Waterstrat, now of Penn Yan have made many improvements in St. Ann's as a result of proceeds from other bazaars and dinners, according to A. D. Gahwiler, publicity chairman.
