Auburn Friday Club Hears Father Nolan

Auburn — The Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, pastor of St. Stephen's Church, Geneva, was the speaker at the September meeting of the First Friday Supper Club of Auburn Council, Knights of Columbus. Joseph P. Cuddy presided and presented the speaker.

Father Nolan in his address discussed the value of the gift of our Catholic Faith and the many obligations involved therein. He pointed out that one of the primary duties imposed upon all who are of the Faith is charity. Father Nolan cited some of the many examples given by our Divine Lord in this regard.

He urged his listeners to incorporate more fully into their everyday lives the practice of charity, kindness and tolerance. Such a pattern of Christian charity, the speaker declared, is one exemplary way of expressing individual gratitude to God for the priceless gift of Faith.
