GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

TRUE pity instinctively urges us to come near those who suffer. Tell a friend about your sufferings and his hand will move toward you in silent pressure to speak his sympathy. What is this banquet table cornedians used to touch our human nature and be one with our tears and sorrows. to enjoy poking fun at the but a reflection of the pity of the Son of God who came to earth No good is ever done to fellowman except at the cost of true sympathy which leads to identification and contact. Perhaps the tragedy story that went like this: of leprosy is not so much the suffering but the fact that on one wants to touch a leper. Few ever did until Our Lord gave the a cup of coffee in a railroad

Today the Bloly Father's Missigers are caring for 74,000 lepers in 219 different areas of the world; these lepers are daily being touched and healed by 1,300 priests, Brothers and Sisters, ever 100 of whom have contracted the disease in reaching to therm the sympathic touch of Christ.

Our Lord can contemplate in one awful aggregate the sorrows of the world and yet love each person perfectly. When He did it one night in a Garden, it produced crimson beads on olive roots. But our pity has to be individualized to be effective and sacred. It is our hand that particularies our sympathy. The eye sees a hundred oranges: the hand chooses one. When we hear of ten million lepers in the world, it staggers us as abstract misery. But when we reach out our hand with a sacrifice for one of them in pity and sympathy, we take one soul of that mass and let our healing pass into his darkness. Why not then sacrifice for the Holy Father's Missions a dinner, a luxury, a dress, a hat or some of your capital that Our Lord may touch us with His blessing.

GOD LOVE YOU to L. W. for $1,000 to the Holy Father's Missions in gratitude for not having an opponent run opposite her in an election . . . to A. S. "I promised a certain sum of money if our crop was saved. It was, and I am therefore sending the Missions this $10." . . . to E. W. "Enclosed in $5, the amount I fined myself for gossiping. Maybe this will help me overcome it and at the same time help the missions." . . . to J. J. for $5, "This money is in thank-giving for going back to church and receiving Holy Communion." . . . to S. C., 6 years old, "I carned this 25c taking care of my baby brother. This is for the hungry children."... to W. Z. "Yesterday while working in the field I found it very dry and promised $5 to the Missions if it raised, Today it rained hard." . . . to W. H. "Enclosed is $18, 1 promised this if I made certain grades in my schoolwork."... to G. F. "Instead of spending this $2 on franchy and movies, I am sending it so the Missions and pray that God will return the hair on my bead which I lost through an attack of pollo three years ago." . . . to Mrs. T. N. "God is good to me and mine and I still gripe, I am ashamed and so I am sending $25 to the Missions" . . . to F .R. S. "Enclosed is 87, 10% of my butter and egg money. In honor of the Little Flower and Our Blesned Mother, ask them to intercede for my wife's health.

Pray for Asia this week? You would have if you had a World Mission Rosary to remind you. Send us your request and a $2 of fering to the Missions and we will send you a World Mission
