

K. St. J. Auxiliaries Set First Military Degree

First exemplification of the Military Degree of Ladies Auxiliary, Knights of St. John in Rochester will take place on Sunday, Oct. 4 at Powers Hotel Ballroom beginning at 2 p.m.

Brig. Gen. John G. Bittner, president of New York Grand Commandery, Knights of St. John will confer the degree on a class of 72 women of the Auxiliary. The degree ritual will be followed by a banquet in the Powers Ballroom at 5:30 p.m. at which William A. Lang, president of the Rochester Transit Corporation and a member of Commandery No. 43, Knights of St. John, will speak.

OPENING THE day's program will be a Mass at 9 a.m. in St. Joseph's Church, Franklin St., with the Rev. John J. Crowell, C.S.S.R., spiritual adviser of Ladies District Drill Team, as celebrant. The entire Third Battalion comprising the women's drill companies will receive Holy Communion.

The church services will be preceded by a parade at 8:15 a.m. forming in Franklin Square in front of the Knights and Ladies of St. John Clubhouse. The drill companies, in their colorful uniforms will proceed to Cumberland St., to Clinton Ave. N., to Main St. East, to North St., and to the Church on Franklin St. At the degree ceremony in the afternoon, spiritual advisors of the class will be the following: Father Crowell, Rev. Dr. Walter J. Kohl, St. Boniface, No. 47; Rev. Arthur F. Florack, St. George's, 286; Rev. John W. LeVeque, St. Andrew's, 232; Rev. Frank Hoefen, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, No. 25.

Invited guests include His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, Mrs. Clara Renner of Columbus, Ohio, supreme president of the Ladies Auxiliary; Miss Adelaide Mahoney, Schenectady, supreme secretary; Miss Bertha Kennerknecht, Ulster, New York Grand President of the Ladies Auxiliary.

1300 Students Enjoy Nazareth Field Day

Despite threatening skies and actual downpours 1300 Nazareth Academy students carried through their field day program at Geneva Valley Park Monday, Sept. 21.

Events opened with the Seniors leading their "Little Sisters" the Freshmen in a Grand March through the park. Two colorful baseball games followed with Sophomores versus Juniors and Freshmen opposing Seniors. Victorious Sophomores and Seniors carried on the contest in a wet but spirited championship play off. Seniors copped the title with a score 13-3.

Seniors and cheerleaders echoed through the park at luncheon when the sun once again appeared through the clouds providing opportunity for a variety of races scheduled for the afternoon. Ball games, three-legged and peanut races were among the popular fun producing activities.

New Rochelle Grads Open Fund Campaign

With Miss Cecilia Fagan, 1225 Park Avenue, Rochester as Alumnae Fund Agent for the Rochester area, the Alumnae Association of the College of New Rochelle opened Alumnae Fund Month on Sept. 15.

Before October 15 Miss Fagan will personally enlist the cooperation of each CNR alumna residing in the vicinity of Rochester seeking her aid in promoting the future growth of the College of New Rochelle "the oldest Roman Catholic college for women in the state of New York."

With "Every Living Alumna A Contributor To The Alumnae Fund" as its slogan this year, it is hoped that sufficient funds will be raised during the drive to permit the Alumnae Association to present a substantial gift to CNR in this her Golden Jubilee Year. Miss Fagan said.

Golden Jubilee Planned By Knights In Dansville

Dansville — A gala celebration is being planned by Dansville Council No. 785, Knights of Columbus, to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the Council's founding.

"The celebration will be dedicated to those courageous Catholic gentlemen who organized the Council way back in 1903, and especially to those few Charter members remaining with us," the announcement said.

EDWARD T. BURKE was named general chairman of the program by Grand Knight Charles McLane. Chairman Burke and his committee report plans for the activities are rapidly taking shape.

Climax of the jubilee will be a Memorial Mass with His Excellency Bishop Kearney presiding, Sunday morning, Nov. 8. A banquet will follow that evening which Bishop Kearney will also attend.

Activities will come to a close with Mass and corporate Communion on or about Nov. 26, the anniversary date of the Council's founding.

Mary Bertino Named By Nurses

Geneva — Miss Mary Bertino was elected president of the Geneva unit Catholic Nurses at the first fall meeting of the group Thursday in St. Francis de Sales School hall.

Other officers elected were: Mrs. Leona Clark, vice-president; Mrs. Lucretia Linehan, treasurer.

The unit has increased its membership to 104 for the 1953-54 season as compared with 90 last season.

The meeting was presided by a spaghetti supper. Sixty members attended including a group from Sampson Hospital.

The Rev. Edward K. Ball, V.F., pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church, spoke briefly. The Rev. John V. Loughlin is moderator of the organization.

Chaplain Svends of Sampson Hospital was a guest at the meeting.

Unit committees for the coming year are being organized and plans outlined for the coming months.

Papal Delegate Vatican City (N.C.) Archbishop-elect Silvio Oddi, who has been named Apostolic Delegate to Jerusalem and Palestine, will be consecrated as Titular Archbishop of Mesembria on September 27.

St. Felix Society Supper Scheduled

St. Felix Society of St. John Church will hold a post-Thanksgiving and meeting in the Parish Hall, Sept. 30. Supper will be served at 8:30 p.m. and a member is asked to bring a prospective member to the supper as their guest.
