

400 CYA Workers' Reports In Campaign Due Monday

The Columbus Youth Association's twenty-second annual membership campaign opened last night with nearly 400 workers dining in the ballroom of the Columbus Civic Center.

The goal of the 1938 drive which will extend through October 13 is 2500 memberships, according to the Rev. Arthur E. Italgan, director of the CYA.

John M. Hedges, general chairman presided at the dinner. Others at the speakers' table were Mrs. John D. Roche, chairman of the Women's Division; Robert C. Odenbach, chairman of the Men's Division and division leaders including Mrs. DeWain F. Felber, Mrs. Phillip J. Schneider, Mrs. Henry J. Keenan, Mary A. McGovern, Charles Argento, John Dale, Thomas Farrell and Thomas J. McCarrick.

FATHER RATIGAN spoke at the dinner along with the Rev. Eugene H. McFarland, director of youth activities for the CYA and Howard Meath, in charge of the CYA staff.

The Special Citizens Committee has been working for the past two weeks under the direction of Harold J. Coleman to secure CYA memberships for deserving boys and girls of the community. This committee is comprised of leading Catholic, Protestant and Jewish laymen.

Campaign headquarters have been established in the lobby of the Columbus Civic Center with William T. Nolan campaign manager in charge. The first report dinner is scheduled for Monday evening, Oct. 5.

Monthly meetings of the Third Order Secular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel will be resumed on Sunday, Oct. 4. The meeting will be held at St. Francis of Assisi Church, Orange and Whitney Streets at 3 p.m. Rev. Joseph A. Cirincione, Spiritual Director, will conduct the meeting.

Anyone interested is invited. The LIBRARY in the Girl's Center will be open before and after the meeting.

"Mary, the Blessed Mother of Jesus, has entered into a relationship with Carmel which has no parallel," the announcement said. "First of all, she is claimed as the Foundress of the Carmelite Order, since it is safe to assume that the inspiration to become its Founder came to Elias from the fair lady of his vision of Mount Carmel."

The annals of the Order give instances of Mary's intervention on its behalf showing that the Mother in a special way and strengthening the bond between her and her Carmelite children.

"Each Carmelite can attribute his vocation to Mary, the Mother and Ornament of Carmel. Every member of the Order owes his perseverance to the powerful inspiration and maternal assistance which she gives him. Our Blessed Lady always was and still is, the Order's living Rule, of which its written Rule is but a copy, so that imitation of Mary sums up the life of a Carmelite."

She teaches and protects us from the dangers of body and soul in life and in death. Truly she is the Hope of all Carmelites.

"The Carmelite is highly favored in having to Mary so loving, solid and powerful a Mother. This is another reason why we believe Mary will keep her Scapular Promise, because she is in a very special way the Mother of all Carmelites and of all who wear her Scapular."

St. Rose Guild Meet In addition to their regular business meeting, the St. Rose Guild will have a timely talk on Political Affairs at the monthly meeting Friday, October 2nd, at 8:30 p.m. in the K. of C. clubrooms.
